Chase Nets One Suspect, Finds $5,000 Worth Of Novato Loot

A Sausalito policeman broke up an outdoor suit-fitting session last night and wound up with a rugful of hot frozen food.

The food—all 60 pounds of it—was "hot" because it had been stolen from the Novato home of real estate broker Robert L. Hullman — although Hullman didn't even know about the burglary yet when Patrolman Ben Barrett recovered the loot.

Equally hot were suits, sport coats, shirts, ties, antique silverware, a television set, an electric typewriter, an electric can opener, and a Persian throw rug that was used to wrap the eatables. In all, the loot totaled over $5,000.

Also equally hot was Reynold Ashley Fitch, 18, of 116 Mariposa Avenue, San Anselmo, who languished behind Marin County Jail bars today after Barrett ran him down in an across-lots chase. Fitch's three companions got away.

Barrett was cruising on patrol at 7:45 p.m. yesterday when he saw four young men in a vacant lot at the end of Marin Street, trying on suits.

Some strange things go on in Sausalito, but this was a little too strange. Barrett got out of his car to investigate.

The four youths took to their heels through the weeds, leaving two cars, with trunks open, behind.

Barrett ran after them, caught Fitch, collared him back to the police car and radioed for reinforcements. Other officers arrived to search for the three escapees, but were unsuccessful.

In the cars, police found the assorted loot. They took it—and Fitch—to the police station and put out word by radio to other law enforcement agencies in the county.

At 8:30 p.m., Hullman, who lives alone, got home to 91 Half Moon Road, Novato, to find the house had been broken into and thoroughly ransacked. Sofa cushions were thrown about. Only two suits remained in the clothes closet. His collection of antique silver had vanished. The Persian throw rug was missing along with a zebu skin rug from Africa.

Sausalito Fishing Boat In Trouble

The Lucile, a 30-foot commercial fishing boat out of the Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito, was reported holding its own today after sending a radio message that it might sink.

Mike Knapp, well known Sausalito fisherman, was on board.

The Lucile was three miles off Point Reyes, the Coast Guard said. Another boat, the Captain Carl, was alongside.

The radio message was relayed to the Coast Guard by the salmon party boat, Salmon Queen, which said it was unable to locate Lucile.

The Coast Guard cutter Point Chico was sent to the scene.

Soviets Send Up Five Satellites

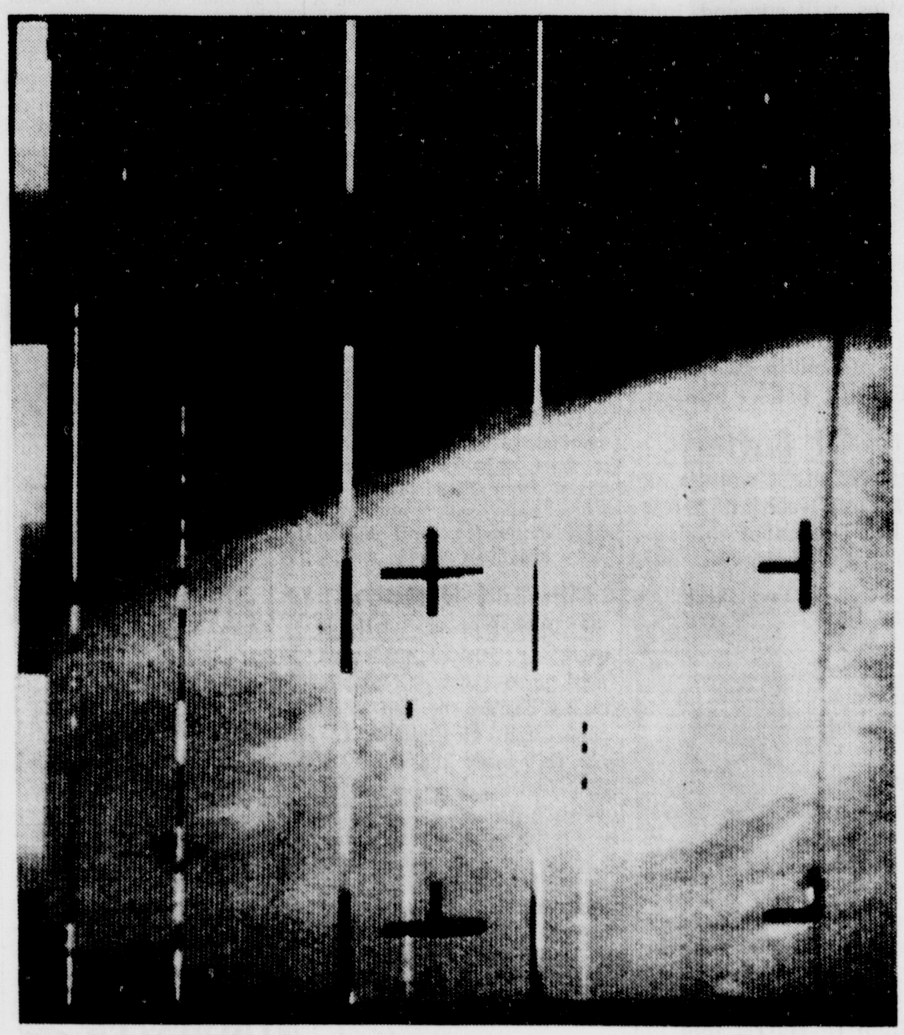

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet scientists set a Russian space record today by launching five unmanned satellites with one rocket into tightly grouped orbits of the earth.

The United States earlier this year put up a cluster of eight satellites with one rocket. The previous Soviet record was three, set last March.

The Tass news agency said all five satellites were unmanned and belonged to the "Cosmos" series of fact finding Sputniks which gather data needed for the Russian manned space program.

Reedy In Clinic

ROCHESTER, Minn. (UPI) — George Reedy, who resigned last week as press secretary to President Johnson, is undergoing treatment for a foot ailment at the Mayo Clinic, a clinic spokesman said today.

FIRST INTERPLANETARY PHOTO—Scientists in Pasadena today presented this pictorial reconstruction of a 200-mile slice of Mars' horizon, from digital dat a radioed back during a period of more than eight hours yesterday by Mariner IV. Viet Leader Requests More U.S. Soldiers

SAIGON (UPI) —A U.S. military spokesman reported today the Viet Cong suffered 156 dead in a battle yesterday 30 miles south of Da Nang but conceded there were "heavy" government losses. Two other actions brought the guerrilla death toll to 247.

Results of the battle were reported as Defense Secretary Robert McNamara arrived in Saigon and heard Premier Nguyen Cao Ky ask for enough U.S. combat infantrymen to defeat the Viet Cong and not just contain the Communists' monsoon offensive.

At the same time there were reports McNamara was considering expanding military operations into neighboring Laos where 50,000 men would seal off the Ho Chi Minh Trail and block further shipments of men and material from North Viet Nam into the south.

An American spokesman reported the possibility that an entire division of North Viet Nam regular troops — a force between 10,000 and 15,000 men was operating in South Viet Nam. He said three regiments of the 325th Division had been identified.

No major ground fighting was reported today but American planes struck again into North Viet Nam with a series of raids against radar sites, bridges, railroads and boxcars and an airport 25 miles west of Than Hoa.

On the political front, reliable informants said government agents today arrested Col. Pham Ngoc Thao, a leading political plotter who is under a death sentence for leading an unsuccessful attempt to overthrow Premier Nguyen Khanh

Head Start Project Aid To Children

By STEPHEN COOK

A 4-year-old girl, her bright plaid dress neatly starched and pressed, her hair tightly braided, clings and tugs at a teacher's hand. Her face is determined, as if to say: "You are mine now. I won't let you go."

The face of a 5-year-old boy flushes with pride at his teacher's smile. He has just been told that the picture she holds is of a bird and the bird's color is blue.

Another small boy, standing just perceptably higher than an adult's knee, shies away from a game of hide-and-go-seek. He does not want to play; he might lose.

These are three of the 67 preschool children found in the classrooms of Manzanita School in Marin City each weekday morning. Enrolled in a program called Project Head Start, they are Marin City's beneficiaries of the Economic Opportunity Act—"The War on Poverty."

These are the children educators call "culturally deprived." The United States Office of Economic Opportunity calls them the "children of the poor." Most of them are Negroes.

Educators for years have quoted statistics showing that in the first grade, these children will be six months behind boys and girls from middle class homes.

By the fourth or fifth grade, they say, they will be some two years behind the other children. These children are the school dropouts in the future.

This year Congress authorized

Martian Desert's Portrait Snapped

First Photo Doesn't Solve Life Question

COMBINED AP & UPI

PASADENA — Man's first closeup picture of Mars shows a remarkably earth-like desert area—but gives no hint of an answer to whether the mysterious planet could harbor life.

The poorly defined picture snapped as Mariner 4 flew within 10,500 miles of Mars Wednesday was released last night while the U.S. spacecraft was relaying its second picture across 134 million miles of space.

PLANET OUTLINE

The portion of the planet outlined in the picture, snapped at an extreme angle at the start of a north to south run, is apparently a bright desert with an even brighter area in the center.

Bordering the desert-like area are smudges which could be low-lying hills, darker colored soil or possibly even vegetation.

Scientists said the picture, streaked with lines representing improper radio signals, was not clear enough to warrant speculation about the cause of differences in shadings.

To the unscientific eye, however, it could have been a photograph taken from a very high altitude of one of earth's deserts bordering a jungle region.

UNSCIENTIFIC EYE

"I did not expect this or any of the other 20 pictures we may get from Mariner 4 to give a final answer to the controversy over whether there may be some form of life on Mars," said Dr. Robert B. Leighton, chief of the team of scientists who will study the photographs over the next several weeks.

Earlier yesterday scientists reported instruments on Mariner 4 had failed to detect a magnetic field around Mars or a concentration of solar radiation trapped by that field.

This was good news for men designing future Mars landing craft — they probably won't have to include heavy shielding against radiation.

This also meant, scientists said, that Mars' internal structure apparently differs from earth's.

The success of the $200 million Mariner Mars exploration program gave the United States a prestigious first in space. A Soviet attempt to photograph Mars failed last April when radio signals stopped coming back from Zond 2, launched two days

U.S. Leaders Pay Respects To Stevenson

WASHINGTON (AP) — "A vast company — we friends of Adlai Stevenson"—paid homage with a brief, solemn memorial service at Washington National Cathedral today.

President and Mrs. Johnson headed 2,000 notables from all branches of government, the diplomatic corps and citizenry attending the final Washington rites in the huge Episcopal church.

The ceremony conducted by Stevenson's pastor from Springfield, Ill., Dr. Richard Grabel, and the eulogy by his old friend, federal Appeals Court Judge Carl McGowan were brought to countless other Americans by nationwide television and broadcast.

Stevenson's casket — draped with an American flag and flanked by standards bearing the flags of the United States and of the United Nations where he was the U.S. ambassador—lay in the nave of the massive cathedral at a center point called "The Great Crossing."

The tone of the ceremony—

Controversy Rises Anew Over Adlai's Dominican Views

White House Denies Newsmen's Reports Of Stevenson's Sayings

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The controversy which marked Adlai Stevenson's participation in the nation's highest councils appeared today to be following him even in death.

At issue were reports of Stevenson's views on U. S. policy. It was said the late U. S. ambassador to the United Nations felt intervention in the Dominican Republic was a blunder which made him want to resign.

The White House condemned the reports and said they were "a disservice to the memory of any public official of Ambassador Stevenson's character and ability to quote him after he is dead and cannot answer."

The reports were reminiscent of the ordeal Stevenson went through after the Cuban missile crisis of 1962. In that case it was said he "wanted a Munich" by appeasing the Russians.

The new controversy centered on reports by Metromedia radio correspondent David Schoenbrunn and CBS correspondent Eric Severeid following Stevenson's death Wednesday.

Schoenbrunn said that at a dinner in Paris last week with Stevenson and U. S. ambassador at large W. Averell Harriman, the U. N. ambassador described the intervention as "a massive blunder" and that he "could never quite believe" what he was called upon to say at the United Nations during the crisis.

Sevareid said Stevenson told him Monday that the Dominican crisis "took several years off my life" and that he wanted to resign as ambassador.

Harriman, who is now in Moscow, flatly denied the description of U. S. actions which Schoenbrunn attributed to Stevenson. The roving ambassador said he discussed the subject with Stevenson several times and had never heard such a statement.

White House Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers said "the President feels Ambassador Stevenson would not have said one thing to the national Security Council and another to the press; he would not have said one thing to the President and another to the press."

Moyers added that Johnson had been as confident of Stevenson's loyalty and support "as he was of his own loyalty and support for the late President John F. Kennedy."

There was no reason to believe there was "any kind of public or private dispute" between Johnson and Stevenson on policy decision," Moyers said.

Plantation Charges Erased From Records

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. James O. Eastland has dismissed as "all bunk" allegations by a Negro farm worker that he operates his Mississippi plantation with paroled convicts.

And the chairman of the House Labor subcommittee which heard the testimony yesterday ordered it — and references to two other members of the Mississippi congressional delegation —stricken from the record.

The Negro worker, Andrew Hawkins, 46, had told the subcommittee that Eastland, Mississippi Democrat who heads the Senate Judiciary Committee, uses prisoners paroled from nearby penitentiaries to chop cotton on his delta farm.

Hawkins, active until last month in trying to unionize delta field workers and truck drivers, said conditions on Eastland's farm are so bad his workers operate stills on it, selling the moonshine to supplement their meager pay.

Earlier, Hawkins and the Mississippi Freedom Labor Union's vice president, Aaron German, 19, read statements telling of delta field workers getting 30 cents an hour for 10 hours a day and urging they be included in any broadening of federal minimum wage coverage.

Asked if "public officials" maintain those kinds of farms, Hawkins named Eastland and two other Mississippi Democrats Sen. John C. Stennis and Rep. John Bell Williams.

invitation of the chairman, Rep. James Roosevelt, D-Calif., made a statement that "I have never owned a farm, rented a farm or leased a farm."

Eastland fired back an immediate disclaimer.

Federal Troubleshooter Seeks Bogalusa Solution

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

The Justice Department's top racial troubleshooter has been ordered to Bogalusa, La., to seek an end to racial strife in the papermill town.

White House Press Secretary Bill Moyers said in Washington Thursday that John Doar, head of the Justice Department's civil rights division, would "meet and discuss the solution with all parties.

Bogalusa city officials and Negro leaders Wednesday had appealed to President Johnson to intervene in the crisis. Moyers said the President did not want to interfere directly because he considered it a local matter that would have to be solved locally. But he dispatched Doar to lend a hand.

About 400 Negroes marched for the seventh time in eight days at Bogalusa yesterday. Scores of state troopers protected the marchers and occasionally pushed white hecklers back with nightsticks.

At Houston, Tex., yesterday, Rice University accepted two Negro undergraduates for next fall. Rice already has a Negro graduate student.

The university went to federal court last year and won authority to desegregate despite an indenture against Negro students written in 1891 by William Marsh Rice, who originally endowed the $100 million institution.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Brown Appoints Senator Judge

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Stanley Arnold, D-Susanville, a 10-year veteran in the upper house, was appointed today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown as judge of the Lassen County Superior Court.

Arnold

Arnold, 61, representing the First Senate District of Lassen, Modoc and Plumas counties, will succeed Judge Ben V. Curler, who has retired.

Chairman of the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Governmental Administration and a member of the Senate Rules Committee, Arnold is one of many rural state senators who faced the loss of his Senate post through the U.S. Supreme Court's reapportionment decision.

Arnold, a native of Indiana and a graduate of St. Joseph's College in that state, moved to Susanville in 1922. He received his law degree from the University of California's Hastings College of Law in 1948. From 1949 to 1955 he was Lassen County district attorney.

Brando's Ex Guilty Of Battery

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A jury of eight women and four men has convicted actress Anna Kashfi of battery for slapping a police officer last December during a child custody row. Sentencing was delayed until Monday.

Miss Kashfi

The jury decided yesterday that Miss Kashfi, 29, struck Sgt. E. H. Hall, 39, last Dec. 7 when he served a court order giving temporary custody of her son to her ex-husband, actor Marlon Brando, 40.

Miss Kashfi was arrested during a disturbance in a Bel Air hotel after Brando took custody of their son Christian Devi. After Brando, armed with a court order took the boy, Miss Kashfi allegedly ran screaming through the hotel and slapped Sergeant Hall.

The Deputy City Atty. John D. Harris told the jury Miss Kashfi "did not have the right to take the law into her own hands."

Shriners Subside

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Shriners, perhaps a bit tired after a week of meetings, parades and such things as roller skating down Washington sidewalks, concluded their annual convention today. The Nobles, an organization devoted to having fun and supporting hospitals for crippled children, put on their final extravaganza last night when they paraded down Pennsylvania Avenue.

Policeman's Son

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Kenneth Polani, 24-year-old son of an accused burglar-policeman, was placed on two year probation yesterday by Superior Judge Norman Elkington after pleading guilty to a charge of possessing a blackjack. Polani's father, Salvatore Polani, 44, is charged with the attempted burglary of Sally Stanford's Pacific Heights mansion.

Demonstration Flops

LONDON (UPI) — Television interviewer Derek Batey stood on a plastic carton of milk during a program last night to prove it would withstand 224 pounds pressure. The carton gave way, covering the embarrassed Katey in milk and splashing the liquid around the studio.

Fund Boss Retires

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry T. Heald is retiring next Dec. 31 as president of the Ford Foundation after directing the giving away of $1.7 billion of the foundation's funds. Heald, who will be 61 next November, has headed the foundation since 1956. A successor has not yet been appointed.

Dam Safety Urged

ROME (AP)—A parliamentary committee investigating the 1963 Vaiont Dam disaster that claimed nearly 2,000 lives recommended last night that Parliament take steps to ensure the safety of persons living near major water basins. The committee said it was unable to fix blame for the tragedy Oct. 9, 1963, in northern Italy.

Korea Floods Kill

SEOUL (AP) — Twenty persons drowned, 18 were missing, and at least 40,000 persons were driven from their homes by floods today after torrential rains battered central Korea, police and news reports said.

Marshall Defended

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House members yesterday defended Negro jurist Thurgood Marshall against charges he had Communist front associations. The charges against the U.S. Appeals Court judge, named by President Johnson this week to be U.S. solicitor general, were made in a speech prepared for the House by Rep. Joe D. Waggoner Jr., D-La. Waggoner alleged that groups to which he said Marshall belonged had been cited as having Communist connections.

Harriman In New Kremlin Meetings

MOSCOW (UPI) — W. Averell Harriman, President Johnson's diplomatic troubleshooter, today made a date with another high-ranking Kremlin official.

Harriman conferred for three hours yesterday with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, then announced that he had "significant information" to report to Johnson. The nature of the talks and Harriman's information were not disclosed.

It was widely believed the agenda included Viet Nam.

Harriman will meet tomorrow with Soviet Agriculture Minister V. V. Matskevich, but the talks were expected to skirt high policy matters such as Viet Nam.

Reports early this year indicated Johnson himself might make a trip to Moscow. That hope died with the escalation of the Viet Nam fighting, and all high-level communication between Washington and Moscow stopped.

THREE-DISTRICT PLAN TO STATE

In what one member branded "an exercise in futility," the Marin County Committee on School District Reorganization last night voted 6 to 3 to again ask the State Board of Education to approve three-district unification within Tamalpais High School District.

Although they admitted the plan probably will never come to an election, the committee majority members argued it had to be submitted before July 18 to "buy time" and keep the state from taking over on unification.

Last night's action capped the committee's third poorly attended hearing in two nights on the so-called "three-way split." The attendance area of the Drake High School was considered at last night's session, and brought the largest turnout of the series —nearly a dozen persons, including the press. As before, most audience members were elementary school districts' taxpayers, opposed to splitting the present Tam district.

Mrs. Loretta Phelps of San Anselmo, speaking for both the Central and Southern Marin Leagues of Women Voters, reminded that nine months ago her organization had opposed the three-district plan, contending the smaller districts would have impaired educational programs, staff would be triplicated, and ethnic imbalance would be frozen in.

San Anselmo trustee Franklin C. Latcham, Lagunitas spokesman Mrs. Audrey Miller, Fairfax board president Laurence G. Herrmann and others opposed the three-way proposal.

Commission member Marietta Larsen of Woodacre declared: "I think this whole thing is an exercise in futility. I think we're running very little risk of losing jurisdiction. It's bad public relations. I think the committee should take about two years and study the whole county except areas which already have plans."

Mrs. Larsen, Mrs. John W. Binckley of Mill Valley and Jack L. Mengel of Corte Madera voted against David D. Ring's three motions to send three separate districts to the state board for approval, and against a long series of complex motions to clear up legal technicalities if three districts should be created.

At its special meeting following the unification hearing, the unification proposal was the only business accomplishment.

The agenda item for discussion of "philosophy of school district organization" was postponed to the committee's August meeting, with chairman Rachel M. Conner of Kentfield requesting each member to turn in a brief statement on their ideas to the county schools office for compiling before the meeting.

It was also decided that the August session may include discussion of the West Marin School District's proposal that the committee study county-wide unification.

The three-district plan favored last night differs slightly from that proposed a year ago. It would retain the Strawberry area as part of the Tam district rather than incorporate it in the Redwood High area, and would give the Bolinas-Stinson Beach district to the Drake High district rather than Tam.

Seamen Saved In Twin Mishap

EUREKA (AP)—The Colombian freighter Ciudad de Manizales headed toward Portland, O today with two fishermen whose boat sank five hours after the vessels collided.

The freighter also carried two Coast Guardmen from the cutter Avoyel which was escorting a second Coast Guard cutter, the Cape Carter, to Alameda for repair of damages suffered in a rescue atempt.

No one was injured in the accident 35 miles southest of Eureka yesterday.

Johnson Repeats Wiretapping Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has prohibited any wiretapping by his administration except in cases where it is essential to protect the national security, the White House says.

Bill D. Moyers, White House press secretary, said Thursday the President believes "it must not be condoned or tolerated under any other circumstances and never, never without the approval of the attorney general." This approval must be obtained in advance, he said.

Moyers said Johnson laid down that rule soon after he became President and emphasized it again recently in a message to Cabinet officers and agency chiefs.

King Asks Help For Needy Pupils

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King has outlined what he terms a "broad-based and gigantic bill of rights" to help the "disadvantaged" children of the nation.

He spoke last night before more than 1,000 persons at the annual summer session banquet of Syracuse University. King said his program would begin with financial aid to all families with annual incomes of less than $3,000.

He said poor housing and unemployment were both related to educationally deprived children.

The National Student Association was founded in 1947 to serve the American student community through services, programs and publications.

Red China Gets New Supporters

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. government survey says Red China made deep inroads last year into the Soviet Union's sphere of influence among Communist parties in nations not under Communist rule.

Early this year, the report said, Communist parties in four nations outside the Red orbit — Indonesia, India, Japan and New Zealand — showed strong pro-Chinese tendencies.

In addition, pro-Chinese parties were formed in Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Burma, Ceylon, Colombia, Mexico, Paraguay and Switzerland, the report said.

Sergeant Proves He Can Be Lucky, Too

MasLeod was chosen "soldier of the year" by the Sixth Region, Army Air Defense Commond. In addition to two dress uniforms and trips to Colorado and Washington, D. C., the Army plans to give him a $100 cash bonus.

Last year, his wife was the lucky one. Mrs. Christina MacLeod won the same amount as winner of the Independent-Journal's 1964 June Brides Contest, correctly guessing how many marriages there would be in Marin that month.

Sergeant MacLeod was among three finalists interviewed yesterday by a board of officers and non-commissioned officers. He was chosen on the basis of such qualifications as his military record, appearance and knowledge of his job as a career counselor at the post.

In the job, MacLeod does work similar to that of a re-cruiter, but concentrates on get-re-enlistments of men already in the army.

A native of San Pedro, he joined the army in 1954 and has been at Fort Baker since July, 1963.

ROBERT A. MacLEOD
Wins cash, uniforms

The MacLeods, who live at Fort Baker, have three children: Monika, 9, Ronnie, 7, and Robert, 4. The older two attend Sausalito schools.

As "soldier of the year," MacLeod will receive a dress blue and a dress green uniform, which ordinarily must be purchased. This fall, he will visit the headquarters of the Army Air Defense Command in Colorado Springs, and will meet other "soldiers of the year" at the annual convention of the Army Assn. in Washington, D. C.

Five Papers Up For Sale In County

Five Marin County weekly papers — the former Pelican Papers plus the Sausalito News and the Marin Guide shopper — are up for sale.

Owner George B. Thornhill advertised the properties for sale in yesterday's edition of the Wall Street Journal, asking $450,000 "for quick sale."

Thornhill acquired the Sausalito News and Marin Guide from George M. Harlan, and the Pelican papers — the Ross Valley Times, Larkspur-Corte Madera Times and Tiburon Peninsula Pelican — from Northern California Publishing co.

Thornhill could not be reached today for comment regarding the proposed sale.

homage to a friend of man—was set in Judge McGowan's opening sentence: "We are a vast company — we friends of Adlai Stevenson."

And the Rev. Mr. Graebel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Springfield, brought the religious rite to a close with the prayer: "May the Lord give you peace the world cannot give or take away."

Johnson sat in the front row with Mrs. Johnson, their daughter Luci, 18, and Vice President and Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey.

After the 40-minute ceremony, the cathedral's bell tolled and a military honor guard wheeled away the casket for a flight to Springfield. The body will lie in state at the Capitol there until Sunday morning.

Earlier, while the casket lay in repose overnight in the cathedral's small Bethlehem Chapel, thousands of citizens had filed by to pay their last respects.

The control tower reported it was flooded with other pilots' radioed congratulations to Capt. Howard Ellis of Atlanta, Ga., on his bringing in the ship without injur to 83 persons aboard or major damage to the three-engine Boeing 727.

Hunt For Slayers Continues

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A tragic end has marked the search for two missing grocery clerks, but police kept up their hunt today for the youths' killers and $1,200 taken from the store where they worked.

Shot in the head and thigh, the body of Philip K. Latimer, 21, was found yesterday morning a short distance from where his missing co - worker was found Wednesday, a bullet wound in his leg and a deep gash in the head.

That solved the disappearance of the pair of highly regarded youths from the grocery store where they were working an unacustomed Sunday night shift.

Still sought were the money missing from the safe, and the two men seen to enter the store at closing time Sunday.

Latimer's body was found by Ralph Bonetti, a rural judge who figured it must be close to the Sacramento River spot where Michael McCandless, 16, was discovered by two fishermen. Although civilians found both bodies, scores of police had been scouring the area.

vato police started taking down the list of missing items and promptly matched it with that seized by Sausalito officers from the two cars in the vacant lot.

Hullman went to Sausalito and identified all the items.

The frozen food included turkeys, chicken, steaks, chops, a whole salmon, strawberries, blueberries and a gallon of ice cream. Hullman said he was able to put most of it back in his refrigerator, although a few items had started to thaw and had to be thrown away.

Much of the antique silver, however, was scratched and bent, he said. And he faced a major cleaning bill for the clothing and rugs.

"That lot where they were trying on my clothes was full of foxtails," he said wryly.

Fitch was charged with burglary and possession of stolen goods and jailed under $2,750 bail.

He was already out on lesser bail on a charge of possession of marijuana, filed by Sausalito police May 27 after they found marijuana under the floor boards of a car in which he was riding.

Fitch wouldn't talk, but police figured they would find his three companions: They had the registration of the two abandoned cars.

MARS

after Mariner 4 went aloft Nov. 28.

In Moscow, the Soviets today praised Mariner 4 as a vehicle of "new achievements" in space exploration. The official Tass news agency filed several dispatches on Mariner's photos of Mars.

The Russians appeared to be playing the role of good losers. At least two Soviet interplanetary rockets, one frankly billed as a picture - taking mission, have failed.

Leighton predicted the best of Mariner 4's pictures being radioed to earth slowly over a 10-day period could show surface markings as small as one and one-half miles in length or diameter. If there are canals and great cities on Mars as some scientists have speculated the later pictures might detect them, but the lack of sharpness in Thursday night's photograph makes this doubtful.

The first photograph showed light wisps just above Mars' horizon which resembled clouds, but Leighton said he thought these were due to false signals in the transmission.

A laboratory spokesman said there was little likelihood that the second mariner picture would be released today. Processing time will be longer than for the first, because scientists want to make it clearer. It probably will be released tomorrow, the spokesman said.

Settlement Is Sought To Strike

Members of the Bay Counties District Council of Carpenters met in San Francisco today with two contractors groups in hopes of settling one of two construction strikes which are still delaying Marin County building projects.

Meanwhile, pile drivers continued to picket the Grand Avenue Bridge phase of San Rafael's Highway 101 interchange project, even though their part of the work has been completed.

Cement masons, who reached a settlement Tuesday in their own dispute, have stayed off the bridge job rather than cross the pile drivermen's picket line.

Hope for a Monday settlement of the other strike, that of Painters Union Local 83, brightened as the Painting and Decorating Contractors Assn. submitted a new proposal for wage increases of 50 cents per hour each year for three years.

No. discussion on the proposal was scheduled today, but talks were expected to resume Monday.

After turning off the toothbrush and removing the batteries to prevent a fresh scare, police neatly repacked the bag.

By that time Eastern Air Lines Flight 403 to Miami had left.

The bag, which did not bear the owner's name, was sent to Miami on the next flight.

Union Man's Lot Can Be A Sad One

The life of the staunch union man is not all fun and fringe benefits.

Mikeal A. Martin, 18, son of Manuel J. Martin, secretary-treasurer of Barbers Union Local 582, discovered that unhappy fact yesterday.

Young Martin was picketing, walking up and down the sidewalk in front of the barber shop at 1117 Fourth tSreet, San Rafael, carrying a sign which read:

"This Barber Shop Unfair, Non-Union Barbers, Barbers Local 582."

The youth's disillusionment came in the form of an older man who walked up, mumbled "I'm in the same union," and took away his sign.

The man strutted off down the sidewalk as if he were going to continue the picket but kept on walking until he stopped before a hotel a few doors down. There he turned and tore the sign to shreds.

Martin's father, of 143 Mabry Way, San Rafael, complained to police.

Teen-Ager Held For Kidnaping Young Housewife

OCEANSIDE (UPI) —Authorities today held a 14 - year-old youth suspected of kidnaping a housewife at knifepoint and forcing her to ride in the trunk of her car for more than three hours.

Investigators said Mrs. Scolman was unharmed, but was "very distraught" following the three-hour, 80 - mile ride.

The youth, whose identity was not disclosed, was taken into custody pending his return to Redondo Beach, where he lives and where Mrs. Scolman was abducted from a South Bay shopping center.

Fire Rampages In Downtown Salt Lake City

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A half-million dollar fire, the biggest firemen said they'd seen in Salt Lake City, raced through an industrial block last night near the downtown area.

Three firemen received minor injuries.

Officials evacuated the block, turned off gas mains and shut down electric power. Hot wires threatened to fall in the area, bounded by Second West and First South.

The fire threatened a Buddhist church. Members of the church and passers-by frantically removed sacred objects to a sidewalk outside. The church was unharmed.

The cause of the three-hour blaze was not determined. The fires tarted in the south end of the complex, where petroleum equipment is manufactured.

Anti-Rabies Shots Given 480 Dogs In Mill Valley

OBITUARIES

Air Ace Clinton Jones Dies

Clinton Jones Jr., who at age 25 in 1917 left his family's home in Ross, enlisted in the Army and became one of this nation's first air aces by downing eight enemy planes in World War I dog-fights over Europe, is dead at 73.

Jones died June 22 in a Sacramento hospital after a brief illness. He had lived in that city as owner and manager of a grain business for 40 years after returning to the Bay Area at the end of the war.

Yellowed clippings in a scrapbook at the Kentfield home of his son, Clinton Jones III, remain as evidence of his daring encounters in "flying machines" fashioned of wood and canvas.

Jones sent his first enemy plane flaming to French soil on Sept. 4, 1918. Two weeks later he had three more aces to his credit.

He wrote to his brother in San Francisco that his patrol flight of nine Spads had reached "1,800 meters over Verdun when we saw seven Fokkers and two Rumpler scout planes" attacking an Allied observation balloon.

The balloon was destroyed, but his patrol sent six of the German planes on a fiery dive to earth.

"My modest share in this escapade is three Boche—two of them confirmed so far," he wrote.

The young lieutenant was awarded two Distinguished Service Crosses, one for the time near San Mihiel when he attempted to force a German plane to surrender.

The German fired at his Spad, setting it afire. Jones, despite the flames, pumped a round of bullets into the enemy craft and shot it down.

Jones' Spad aircraft is now in storage at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C., where it has been exhibited from time to time.

His family lived in San Francisco and spent the summers at a home on Shady Lane in Ross until the 1906 earthquake. Then they made Ross their permanent home.

In 1917, Jones crossed the bay to enlist in the Army from San Francisco. He entered as a private in the Signal Corps (there was no Air Force) and, after light training at Berkeley, joined the 22nd Aero Squadron in France as a second lieutenant.

Following the war, he lived five years in San Francisco, working in his brother's business. He retired from his grain business eight years ago.

Surviving, besides his son, are a daughter, Gertrude Langer of Sacramento; a sister, Mrs. Webb Ballard of Montana, and eight grandchildren.

ELLEN PRESSLEY

Mrs. Ellen B. Pressley of 16 Second Street, Sausalito, died yesterday in a local hospital after a lengthy illenss. She was 81.

She performed under the stage name Ellen Page, with amateur and professional theatrical groups in the Bay Area in the 1920s and '30s. She appeared in the Mountain Play on Mount Tamalpais several times during those years.

A native of San Francisco, Mrs. Pressley lived the last 20 years in Marin County. She was the widow of Dr. James F. Pressley, who practiced in San Francisco.

FLORES RYAN

Mrs. Flores Ryan, 65, of 100 Bayo Vista Way, San Rafael, died at a local hospital yesterday after a long illness.

She had lived in San Rafael for four years, since her husband's retirement as a real estate salesman in Wisconsin. She was a native of Wisconsin.

The body was taken to University of California, where she has willed her eyes. Funeral will be private.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY

Natural Marin Beauty

for those who've loved our county

The beauty of Mount Tamalpais Cemetery is typically Marin. Here in a setting of soft, rolling hills and lovely vistas are Marin's native trees and shrubs, accented by beautiful lawns and flowers.

For over 90 years leading Marin families have chosen Mount Tamalpais as a final resting place. One good reason is the substantial endowment fund which assures the care and maintenance of this cemetery in the years ahead.

We invite your inspection of this peaceful site. Our staff is always ready to answer your questions and describe Mount Tamalpais facilities.

THE 'INFILTRATION' MYTH

No 'Old Country' For U.S. Negroes

(Second of Two Articles)

By WHITNEY M. YOUNG JR.

The strange fact that most Negroes cannot trace their family history back to the "old country" is one of the most formidable reasons for the abject failure of the Communist Party to penetrate the civil rights movement or shake their loyalties.

During Hitler's rise to power, the Nazi Bund attracted throngs of German - Americans to its rallies in our big cities. Although nearly all German - Americans loyally rejected Hitler as soon as they discovered his global designs, their nostalgia and respect for Germany made them, for a time, susceptible to Bund recruiters and rallies.

Likewise Russian - Americans. The Communist Party here grew to record membership during the era of U.S.-Soviet "good feeling" during World War II. Americans of Russian extraction cheered Moscow's contributions to the war effort and some took out party cards.

Negro Americans, on the other hand, can't trace their origins to any foreign country, unless you want to count Alabama and Mississippi. And most that I know of do not have much nostalgic feelings for Governors Wallace and Johnson. Today, we share great pride in the accomplishments of the emerging African nations. But, as no particular country is involved, this concern and interest is comparatively general. Probably it is more like the spiritual bond which American Catholics have for the Vatican rather than, say, the pride Italian-Americans had for Mussolini until he poured the mustard gas on the Ethiopians.

So the Red recruiters started off with one very big strike against them. They further antagonized Negroes by attempting to grab the legal defense in a number of southern trials of innocent Negroes. For some, it meant the kiss-of-death.

And Negroes who didn't suspect Red manipulation of the Scottsboro case for the purposes of anti-U. S. propaganda soon learned the American Communist Party was pro-Russian, not pro-Negro. I remember clearly how it advised Negroes in 1940 not to join the Army, even as the war clouds darkened, because Stalin and Hitler had signed their infamous non-aggression pact. But this tune changed radically as soon as Hitler's tanks rolled across the Soviet frointer.

By the outbreak of the Korean War in 1950, the party's slavish chase after Moscow's twirling coattails with its almost daily twists and turns, had totally discredited it in the Negro community. The few remaining Negro Communist Party members dropped their membership. And only one of the score of turncoats that fell for North Korean brainwashing was Negro.

Negro troops in Korea, particularly in the bleak, early days of the war, distinguished themselves gallantly. Many saw in the Korean invasion not only a naked power attack against a small country but the dawn of a new attitude by their own nation toward Negro fighting men. Only two years earlier, President Truman had issued his historic executive order banning racial bias in the armed services, and Negro troops felt that change was in the wind. They were right. Formerly all-Negro units—many which had been repeatedly wasted and humiliated during World War II—were integrated; more promotions were made on merit rather than race; and the appetite of colored troops for this new equality proved voracious.

As the chains of Jim Crow began to snap, Negro troops and civilians responded by a display of even stronger loyalties than in the past. Racial integration had thus slammed the door on the last of the party organizers and wary Negro leaders have spared no effort to keep them from infiltrating the rights movement.

America's Negro citizens don't need a Khrushchev or Kosygin to tell us that rats are biting our kids up in Harlem. We've known all about it for some time now. And when the book is written on the story of America's Negro citizens I think historians will record that, for loyalty, patience, and patriotism, their record has been nothing short of miraculous.

Reserve Stipends Go To Marin Scholars

Three Marin college students have been awarded two-year Reserve Officer Training scholarships.

The scholarships will cover tuition, textbook fees and provide a $50 a month allowance for their last two years of college.

Marin cadet recipients are Charles H. Adams, 100 Bayo Vista, San Rafael, student at University of Wyoming; Bernard M. Pietrosilli, 1441 Casa Buena Drive Corte Madera, at University of San Francisco and Peter A. Trusko, 636 Bamboo Terrace, San Rafael, at University of California at Berkeley.

Student Actors Set To Present Farce

Newly formed Young Actors Company, of the Festival Theater Foundation, will open its once a week satirical farce, Once Upon a YAC," or A Faux Pas for a Monday Night," Monday at 8 p.m. at the Festival Theater, 2 Kensington Road, San Anselmo.

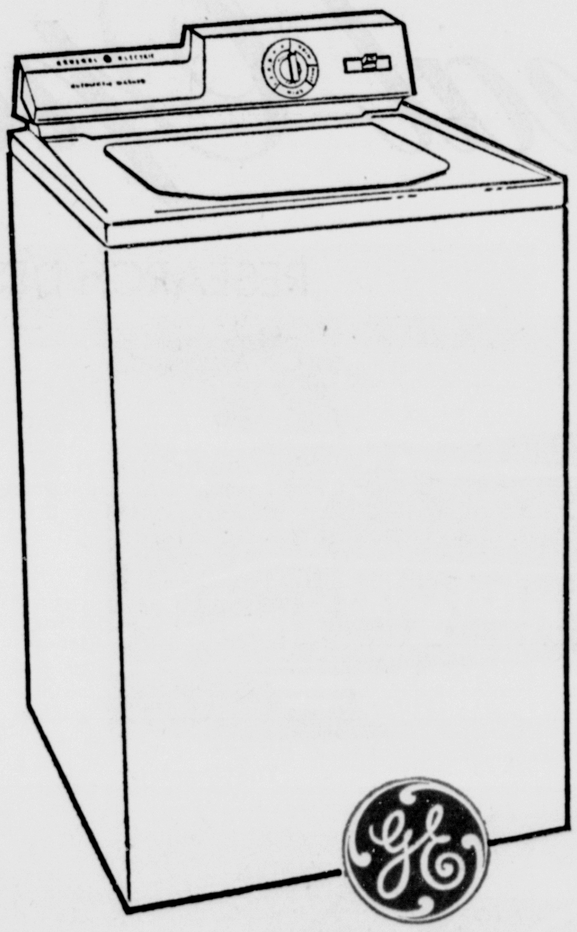

The 28 students, from five Marin high schools and College of Marin, will present the play every Monday night until Labor Day.

WHEN MOTORCYCLE MEETS TRUCK . . .

James S. Gray, 20, of 290 Eliseo Drive, Greenbrae, lies on his back in pain after motorcycle he was operating collided with a truck at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Eliseo Drive at 2:45 p.m. yesterday. His passenger, Pamela Grout, 19, of 1441 Casa Buena Avenue, Corte Madera, is sitting up at his left. She was in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with fractured left leg; he was in good condition with leg scrapes and scalp cuts. Truck driven by William C. Maestretti, 33, of Petaluma, was westbound on the boulevard when southbound cycle came out of Eliseo and they met. (California Highway Patrol photo by Sgt. James C. Dukes)

County Tightens Rules On Protests

Marin County supervisors, with only 78 of 849 contested property assessments heard, set new ground rules today for the equalization hearings that should speed the process.

The board heard late yesterday from county Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell that he must pick up the assessment roll no later than Aug. 10 if he is to meet his Aug. 16 filing deadline with the State Controller. Supervisors earlier thought they could continue the hearings until Aug. 13.

Board Chairman Peter H. Behr outlined the new procedure. It will require all reports from both the assessor and the protesting property owner to go to the board a day in advance.

Board members will then read over the reports in the evening. The protests will be heard next day and any testimony repeating something in the reports will be out of order.

"Also out of order will be statements that taxes are too high. We are already aware of that," Behr said.

The board also will hear no testimony on the personal financial condition of protestants, since it has no legal bearing on a protest, Behr said.

Three minutes will be given each protestant and three minutes given the assessor. There will be exemptions for complex properties, Behr said.

"We are going to be as nice as we can, but we have to be a little crisper," he said.

The need for new rules was made painfully evident yesterday when the board learned of the flood of protests that arrived just prior to the Wednesday 5 p.m. deadline.

There was still a chance today that 150 protests from Belvedere Lagoon property owners might be consolidated and heard all in one day. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said he still must confer with Richard Weinstein, attorney for the lagoon property owners.

Maloney told the board that Richard Clarke, attorney for Correct Unfair Taxation, could not consolidate any of his cases.

Since the new policy on equalization hearings requires advanced reports, it cannot take effect until the hearings resume at 9 a.m. Monday.

Man Injured In Bar Fight

A 56-year-old Fairfax man was treated at Marin General Hospital early today for a shoulder injury he told police he suffered in a bar-room fight.

Allen D. Mitchell of 85 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, stopped a police car at 12:06 a.m. and told Officer Andy Grimes he was injured by Raymond Arratta of Fairfax, who intervened in a fight between Mitchell and Parker Jones of 87 Florence Avenue, San Anselmo, proprietor of Nave's Bar on Bolinas Road in Fairfax.

He said Jones swung at him when he objected to remarks Jones made in front of women bar patrons.

Arratta told police Mitchell was threatening Jones with a stool and he grabbed the stool from him. No one was arrested.

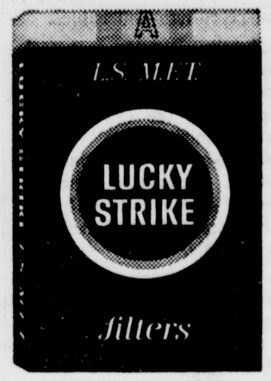

In the 17th Century, French innkeepers were liable to arrest and imprisonment if a patron complained of a stomachache after eating.

Ross Council Lets $35,150 Common Job

The Ross Town Council last night awarded a $35,150 contract to Page Construction Co. of Novato to renovate the town Common.

Page submitted the lowest of three bids on the job.

Councilmen chose two of six alternates listed in the bids, adding the provision that they could contract for any of the others at any time up to within 15 days of the project's completion.

The firm's base bid was $30,800. Alternates chosen were a $650 trellis and $3,700 worth of asphalt walkways.

Work on the Common is expected to start July 26 and be completed in about two months.

The council also approved a change in the deadline for buying dog licenses from Aug. 1 to Aug. 31, in line with the uniform dog control ordinance passed earlier in Ross and other Marin communities.

The meeting was adjourned an hour after it began.

Bridge Jobs Set

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Public Works Department yesterday awarded an $86,136 contract to Mountain States Construction Co., Concord, for replacing bridges over Swillup, Indian and Thompson creeks on Route 96 in Siskiyou County.

Town Clerk Quits Post In Ross

Mrs. Natali Greene Lewis gave the Ross Town Council her resignation last night as town clerk, a post she has held since May 10, 1962.

She will leave the job Aug. 2.

Mrs. Lewis said she was resigning for personal reasons, and would not elaborate. She did not rule out the possibility that she might assume another public post at some future time.

She was named to the post to replace Carroll A. Snyker, who held it for nine months after the resignation of veteran clerk, William W. Cole. She was unopposed in last year's election.

A native of Ross, Mrs. Lewis is a daughter of attorney A. Crawford Greene. She has lived in Ross all her life, except for 17 years when her husband, John G. Lewis, was a Navy officer. He is now a consulting engineer.

Marin City Board Fills Vacant Seat

Arthur Miller Jr. sat last night for the first time on the board of the Marin City Community Services District after the board approved his application. He had no vote, though, since this must await his being sworn in by the county clerk.

Miller, 33, an apprentice mortician at Russell and Gooch mortuary, Mill Valley, has lived in Marin City 10 years and resides at 89 Cole Drive. He succeeds Skyral Sweeney, who has moved to Rohnert Park, Sonoma County.

The board agreed to call a special meeting next week, no date set, to adopt the 1966 fiscal budget, and voted $250 to buy space heaters for the gymnasium.

Douglas J. Quiett, of the county's Community Relations Service, reported 50 youngsters in the summer recreation program and more supervisors needed for it.

Courthouse Future Control Is Studied

Hiring a consultant and forming a non-profit corporation to control development of the county courthouse property in downtown San Rafael, were discussed with enthusiasm by city and county representatives at a luncheon session yesterday.

City Mgr. Dan E. Anderson said the non-profit corporation would buy the property from the county at the 1.4 million dollars that the county hopes to get in public sale. Then the corporation would hold it to assure that the development would benefit the downtown shopping area of the city.

Andersen said a few legal questions in the proposal must be checked, but all attending yesterday's session were enthusiastic about it.

Andersen said he will recommend to the city council Monday that the city hire a consultant to prepare plans for the best use of the property.

"I think the city should pay for the consultant," Andersen said.

Others at the meeting were County Administrator Alan Bruct, Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino, County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell and Mayor C. Paul Bettini.

The county must sell the property to raise money toward the cost of the 11 million dollar hall of justice addition to the Civic Center.

The county wants an early sale. The buyer, however, would not take possession until after the Civic Center addition is completed and courts and county offices are moved.

English Find Roman Helmet Near Village

LAVENHAM, England (AP)—A Roman helmet, which may be the first gladiator's helmet to be unearthed in Britain, has been found on a farm near this Suffock village.

Officials of the Tower of Londan Armories say the construction of the helmet strongly resembles one used by the gladiators in Roman times. A similar helmet was found in Pompeii and is now in the National Museum at Naples.

"It is quite different from any of the British Museum's five Roman helmets found in Britain," said J. W. Brailsford, deputy keeper of the Department of British and Medieval Antiquities at the museum. These are legionary or cavalry parade helmets.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Swinger Buys Anothery Dinery; Good Spot For Mexican Food

Most recent restaurant transfer to be announced—so recent that the ink is scarcely dry on the contract—is Yolanda Apostoli's purchase of Lucchesi's at 510 Tamalpais Drive (Park Madera Center), Corte Madera.

She won't be able to open for another month or so, until transfer of the wine and beer license has been approved. Meanwhile, Hugo and Ronnie Lucchesi are taking a vacation, so the place is closed and will remain that way until Yolanda's official occupancy.

The transaction was handled by Timmer Realty business opportunist Harry Abras.

Yolanda, who used to have the Embers in Corte Madera—and sold it, and the Dunk-It Coffee Shop in Larkspur—and recently sold that, doesn't seem destined to get out of the restaurant business and back into her golfing stride the way she thought she would. Her new establishment will be a seven-day-a-week operation for breakfast, lunch and dinner—not calculated to allow her many hours at the power end of a golf club.

It will be called Yo's Den and I hope she will serve some of those Italian dishes she used to prepare so well at the Embers—like the veal paradisa. She'll remodel the place from one end to the other before opening the doors.

Hugo Lucchesi, I understand, is going to Riverside, where he has a very attractive restaurant offer.

AN ACTIVE little restaurant these days is the Cantina, 100 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, which is drawing the attention of Mexican food aficionados.

Barbara Stone, who runs it, spent considerable time down in Mexico learning right from wrong in authentic south of the border dishes—and she seems to have done her home work well. In fact, adventurer-sculptor Barney West, who for many years has probed the culinary accomplishments of foreign lands, holds that Barbara's pan-fried cheese enchilada is second to none.

Unknown to many admirers of his art accomplishments is the fact that Barney is no mean chef in his own right and served a food apprenticeship that qualified him for many a top restaurant post in his varied career.

Dinners at the Cantina are prepared daily except Mondays, and prices are reasonable. Imported and draught beers in chilled mugs. On Thursday nights, Margarita is the featured flamenco dancer and guitarist; Friday night flamenco guitarist Luther Asbury performs, and on Saturdays you'll usually find a group of folk singers.

Hot sauce on the food, if you want it—but you aren't obliged to demonstrate how rugged you are.

"SOPHISTICATED A-GO-GO" is the weekend theme at Di Pietro Cocktail Lounge, San Rafael where, for a limited engagement, swim dancer Jeanette the Body is featured Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights—along with the regular music attraction here—the Town Squires.

Jeanette prefers to let her family name go unsung, but she is a local girl from Marinwood. Who knows? You may recognize her. She puts on five or six shows a night.

Ron Hennig emphasizes that they are still playing to the adult crowd at Di Pietro's. It's no secret that the a-go-go for this group is mainly curiosity, so here's a chance to indulge yourself in a comfortable environment. Good dance floor.

NEW MANAGER at the Dock in Tiburon is Dimitri Antippa from Greece. He is a history major and graduate of the American University in Beirut. He was also at Oxford three years and last year was graduated from Cornell University's hotel school. In between times and since then he managed to work in a number of eating places and hostelries around Europe. And he was at the Athens Hilton for a year and with the St. George Hotel in London five years.

Don Altenburg has gone to the city to manage Ernie Van Asperen's recent Gold Street acquisition. He'll return to Tiburon to take over the management of Fred Zelinsky's new Dolphin restaurant when that establishment now under construction is ready after the first of the year.

THE DUTCH SHOP bakery at 1209 Grant Avenue, Novato which was remodeled and redecorated so cleverly by Richard Brought, now has a companion enterprise next door—but connected by a passageway.

This is a coffee cup shop that opens at 6:30 a.m. for breakfast Mondays through Saturdays and continues service until 4 p.m. Sandwiches, bakery products and hot lunches. The restaurant is also in Dutch design, same as the bakery; has a counter and eight tables.

Food is cooked here by Mary Schwatka and served by waitress Lavonia Rowell.

THERE'S NO FIRM DATE set for the opening of Bill and Adolph's West End Villa, San Rafael, but it should break within the next two weeks if no unforeseen delays occur. These days it's hard to tell.

I do know that Bill Bisson is now lining up his staff, and judging from the way the work has been conducted he won't open until the last detail is covered. I must say I agree with him. The West End has been remodeled too attractively to trust anything to chance. I think you'll find it to be a place you'll want to visit frequently.

SUNDAY WILL BE the first anniversary of Wayne Henninger's Red Kettle in the Montecito Shopping Center, and I imagine that during the past year his staff has turned out enough pancakes of all varieties to make a stack three times as high as Mt. Tamalpais. And enough link sausages to stretch from Montecito to Peacock Gap. Well, Loch Lomond, anyway.

According to Wayne, it's been a very successful operation, and while no new branches have been opened during these last 12 months there may be an announcement of another addition soon.

PG&E PROGRESS for June featured San Francisco's Le Creole Restaurant at 1809 Union Street, and in particular—Clifford Causey's recipe for Creole pecan pie. That, without doubt, is quite a delicacy—but for the main course, instead of asking for the jambalaya (Cliff says about three out of four people do), try ordering the crab Causey. This is his own concoction, and like his others, quite in line with his Creole specialties—and very delicious.

Le Creole is a small place, and for dinner it's a good idea to phone ahead for reservations. Wines and beers served. Closed Sundays.

Belated Degree Means Start Of New Career

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Joseph Zusman has finally finished college — 35 years after he started.

Zusman, 56, was graduated this spring from the University of Dayton with a bachelor of arts degree and a brand new career in view.

Now a grandfather and the president of a furniture company, Zusman's education was interrupted in 1930 because of the depression.

He now plans to leave the running of the furniture store to his family and became a full-time social worker.

"I hope to spend the rest of my life contributing something to my fellow man," he says.

Seagulls Cause Big Problems

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Keepers at Miami's Crandon Park zoo list seagulls as their top problem.

"Even when we feed our own birds by hand, the gulls divebomb right in and snatch the food away," says head keeper Bill Lunsford. "They're our biggest problem."

Other flying freeloaders also cause problems, particularly in the winter. The zoo finds it has to double its bird food purchases during the months when it's cold up north.

Auto Dealer Tells Tall Tale

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — Johannesburg used car dealers are nothing if not imaginative. One told a prospective customer why a car advertised for sale was so cheap — and swore the story was true.

He called at a house where the car was advertised in roadworthy condition for $14.

"It's in the back," said the woman who answered the door.

He came back after a few minutes and told the woman: "There must be some mistake. The only car in the back is worth every cent of $2,800.

"There's no mistake," said the woman. "It's my husband's. Last week he ran off with another woman.

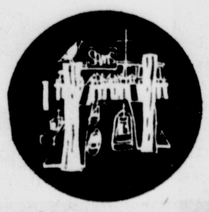

"He wrote and told me to sell the car and send him the money."

Salt-Free Diet Cure To Colds?

LONDON (AP)—Four members of the department of pharmacology in Seth Medical College, Bombay, India, have suggested in a letter to the Lancet, British Medical Journal, that "Man to some extent owes his common cold to the consumption of salt."

They reported that two adults and two children with recurrent colds "Have obtained complete and sustained relief for the past six to 14 months by taking a salt free diet.

They claimed that "in children a common cold can be induced at will be administering a salted diet."

Hamburger and CHAMPAGNE?

Well, not for everybody.

You have to be 21 and come over to Sam's in Tiburon to get it.

And, if you find fulfillment in the works of Edgar Guest, Paul Harvey, Daddy Warbucks, Jane Addams, Norman Rockwell, and Henry Doelger... you might prefer to stick with Sam's tried and true Burger & Beer.

But if a spark of the bon vivant burns in your soul, your taste will be abundantly rewarded with this bizarre combination.

Sam's Anchor Cafe has even bottled its own champagne for the occasion.

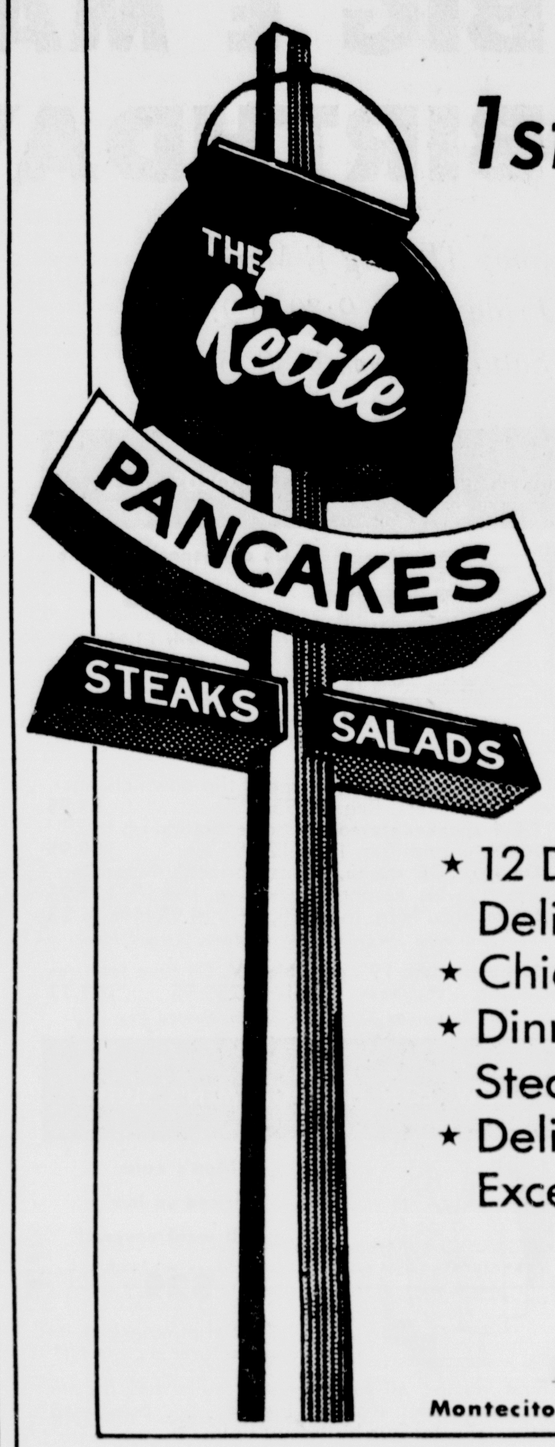

That would be Sam's in Tiburon.

It's not easy to make a Shakey's Pizza.

It took a continental chef to develop that heavenly, delicate crust. And it takes many different cheeses, Polish Sausage, Louisiana Shrimp, Canadian Bacon, Anchovies from Lisbon, Italian Black Olives, and literally hundreds of other imported delicacies, and exotic blends of herbs and spices to make the 21 sorts of pizza on Shakey's menu. Don't hope to find another pizza like Shakey's anywhere. And if you have to get home, stop by and pick up a Shakey's Pizza to go.

College Budget Up 13 Per Cent; Board Worries Over Assessments

With devout hope that the mountain of assessment protests before the Marin County Board of Supervisors will not drastically affect their property valuation estimates, College of Marin trustees last night approved a publication budget of $3,349,578.

This represents an increase over last year of $445,201 or about 13 per cent over last year's estimated expenditures. The board will meet Aug. 5 at 8 p.m. in Room 24, Harlan Hall, to pass a final budget.

The tentative assessed valuation in the district is about $414 million, a jump of more than $50 million over last year. This provides a valuation boost of 13.8 per cent. Business Mgr. Norman Bird told the board that expected revenue was projected from an increase of 12.5 per cent, about $5,000,000 less.

The tax rate likely will rise one cent, to 77 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Trustee Robert Rogers wondered if this provided adequate protection against substantial equalization action by the supervisors, and further if the budget took sufficient cognizance of tax delinquency. Board president Elizabeth M. Deedy urged Bird to watch the equalization hearings carefully. In regard to the delinquent taxpayers, Bird said: "We have collected 96.73 per cent of the taxes this year, just below the 97 per cent on which we have based our estimates."

The only controversy of the evening preceded a board vote to raise the student parking fee.

Trustee Kent O. Seymour demanded that the students pay more for parking privileges than the $2 they paid last year. College president Stephen E. Epler suggested a dollar be added to the fee, but Seymour responded, "I can agree to $3 per semester, but not $3 per year."

Student Jack Lucas protested that "I would pay 50 cents a day if I was sure of a place, but if you don't get here by 7 or 7:30, you're chasing the highway patrol every 20 minutes."

Epler suggested the board delay a decision on the parking fee until Aug. 5 to give Bird and James Burke, the college's director of research and planning, time to study the matter.

Seymour moved to charge $2.50 per semester for parking privileges.

Paul Clymer, vice president of the college, said this would necessitate the collection of change, and "change is hard to come by these days."

Lucas protested that the student executive council should be consulted before such action is taken, but Rogers and Seymour said they assumed the council would advise against any fee. The motion passed 4-0 (trustee William E. Oliver was not present).

Moments later the board passed a parking plan which included transfer of the cafeteria lot from student use to faculty and administration use. Lucas and fellow student Richard Leer also protested this action without success.

The plan accounts for the 1,183 parking spaces available at the college in this manner; 206 are reserved for faculty, administration, guests and handicapped students; 209 are free spaces, and 768 are in fee lots.

The Marin Junior College District Board also:

1. Agreed to start condemnation proceedings for acquisition of 6,450 square feet of property adjacent to the chemistry building on the south, College Avenue on the east and a service station on the north at Kentfield Corners. The property is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Mindle of 127 West End Avenue, San Rafael.
2. Voted to spend $2,420 on a new scoreboard for the football field, one which may be moved if a new field is constructed.
3. Delayed until Aug. 5 consideration of purchasing laundry equipment for the gymnasium.
4. Accepted the suggestion of Dr. Roy G. Mikalson, dean of community services, that the afternoon program in the San Anselmo parent education nursery school be expanded from three to five days per week, and learned that some parents have waited a year and a half to get into the program.
5. Was told by administrative assistant Richard Gott and teacherteacher James Clark that the pilot work-study program for underprivileged students, undertaken with federal assistance, has provided encouraging results in its first summer of operation.

Psychopath Case Hearing Sought

Jaime Enrique Sandoval, 34, onetime San Rafael hospital orderly who figured in the 1960 deaths of a Millbrae couple, has again asked San Mateo Superior Court for a hearing to determine if he has been cured as a sexual psychopath.

Sandoval was convicted Feb. 8, 1961, of lewd acts with the two teen-age sons of Donald and Virginia Douglas.

Now a worker in the San Quentin Prison dairy, he was originally sent to Atascadero State Hospital. He was ordered sent to the California Medical Facility at Vacaville two years ago after a similar petition was turned down, and came to San Quentin from there.

Attorney Robert H. James of San Francisco filed the petition yesterday. It said Sandoval has improved to the point where state psychiatrists feels he deserves another hearing.

Judge Louis Dematteis put the case over for 30 days to await further psychiatric reports.

If the court holds he has recovered mentally, Sandoval may then face sentence on his 1961 conviction.

The full story of how Douglas and his wife died has never been established.

Sandoval, a Puerto Rican, allegedly obtained $16,000 from the couple to help settle a fictitious inheritance. He went with Mrs. Douglas to Puerto Rico in 1960. On Sept. 23 of that year, he reported that she had fallen to her death from a seashore cliff.

Her body was never found.

Douglas flew to Puerto Rico and returned Oct. 2 with Sandoval. He vanished four days later, and on Oct. 23 was found dead in a car in Lucas Valley, apparently of carbon monoxide fumes. He left a two and one-half page letter saying he "was taken in very stupidly by Sandoval" in an inheritance swindle, and also saying he believed his wife had been murdered.

In 1957 Sandoval was convicted in Marin on a charge of perversion with a teen-age boy. He was paroled after serving nearly two months in county jail.

Douglas was an executive of a San Francisco firm and a civic leader in Millbrae. His wife worked part-time in the Millbrae city clerk's office.

Church Job Hiring Bias Is Questioned

The Session of St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church will meet tonight with the general contractor of the church, now under construction in Marin City, to determine whether there is compliance with employment practice clausei n their contract.

Action was agreed upon by the session, elected church leaders, after meeting a full day last Saturday. They decided they would meet with the contractor, Charles J. Hendrickson of San Rafael, to discuss the matter.

"Our congregation is a predominantly Negro one in a predominantly Negro community and wef eel very strongly that, in this situation, discrimination should be confronted if it exists," said Pastor James E. Symons.

The meeting will be held at the home of Rev. Donald Schilling, also church pastor, at 26 Burgess Court, Marin City, at 8 p.m.

Car Theft Trial Jury Dismissed

Trial of Harold Chester Wasley, 30, charged with car theft, yesterday resulted in a hung jury in Marin Superior Court.

The three-day trial went to the jury at 3 p.m. and deliberations lasted until 10 p.m. Wasley, of San Francisco, and Stephen Earl Crane, 28, transient, allegedly took a car from Fred Gregory Shaw in Novato last March 8.

Crane pleaded guilty and is at California Medical Facility at Vacaville. Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said he will retry the Wasley case.

STAR-CROSSED LOVERS

Kathleen Adams as Juliet and William Wilson as Romeo are starred in the first of the Marin Shakespeare Festival's summer season of plays. "Romeo and Juliet" will be repeated tonight at 8:30 on the outdoor stage at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross. "As You Like It" will open tomorrow night.

District Icy To Merger Inquiry

The San Rafael Sanitation board yesterday answered a form letter from the county grand jury which asked of they would consider joining with other districts into one large district.

Their answer was an emphatic manager Norris Rawles.

"The board felt it wouldn't be fair to the taxpayers to join their district, which is in good financial condition, with another district in poor shape," he said.

State Fair Broadcast Fund Scheme Vetoed Third Time

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—A proposal of the California Broadcasters Assn. to take over the $20,000 radio-TV advertising budget of the California State Fair in return for some sort of editorial support of the annual extravaganza apparently has gone down for the third time.

And, as in the case of water mishaps, it appears this third sinking of the ambitious CBA plan will be the last.

The CBA, which claims to represent radio and television coverage of nearly all of California, first made its proposal to exchange editorial time of its members in return for all of the fair's radio and television advertising money two years ago.

After considerable discussion, a subcommittee of the state fair board of directors turned down the proposal. The action came after strong objections to the plan from the California Newspaper Publishers Assn.

The CNPA was not involved in the CBA plan, but felt the official selling of editorial time over the airwaves cast a cloud over all news media with an inference editorial time or space might be up for grabs and money. The state fair director who headed the subcommittee was Bert J. Abraham, former publisher and former CNPA president.

Again in 1964, the Broadcasters Assn. made a similar approach and, again, it was rejected. The renewal of the scheme this year brought what should be the final action.

The report is that the director of general services, which must approve any contracts entered into by the state fair board of directors, said he could not approve such a contract and was supported in this position by the state director of finance. Thus the fair board of directors has no jurisdiction in the matter and has been so informed by its president.

Tiburon Home Group Elects New Slate

Thomas Nock has been elected president of the Hill Haven Property Owners Assn. in Tiburon by the board of directors.

Edgar Castellini was chosen vice president; Mrs. William Kaffer, secretary, and Edgar Brand, treasurer. Other directors are Mrs. Kenneth Merklin, Mrs. Fitzie Westernoff, Col. Clayton Claassen and Albin Dittli.

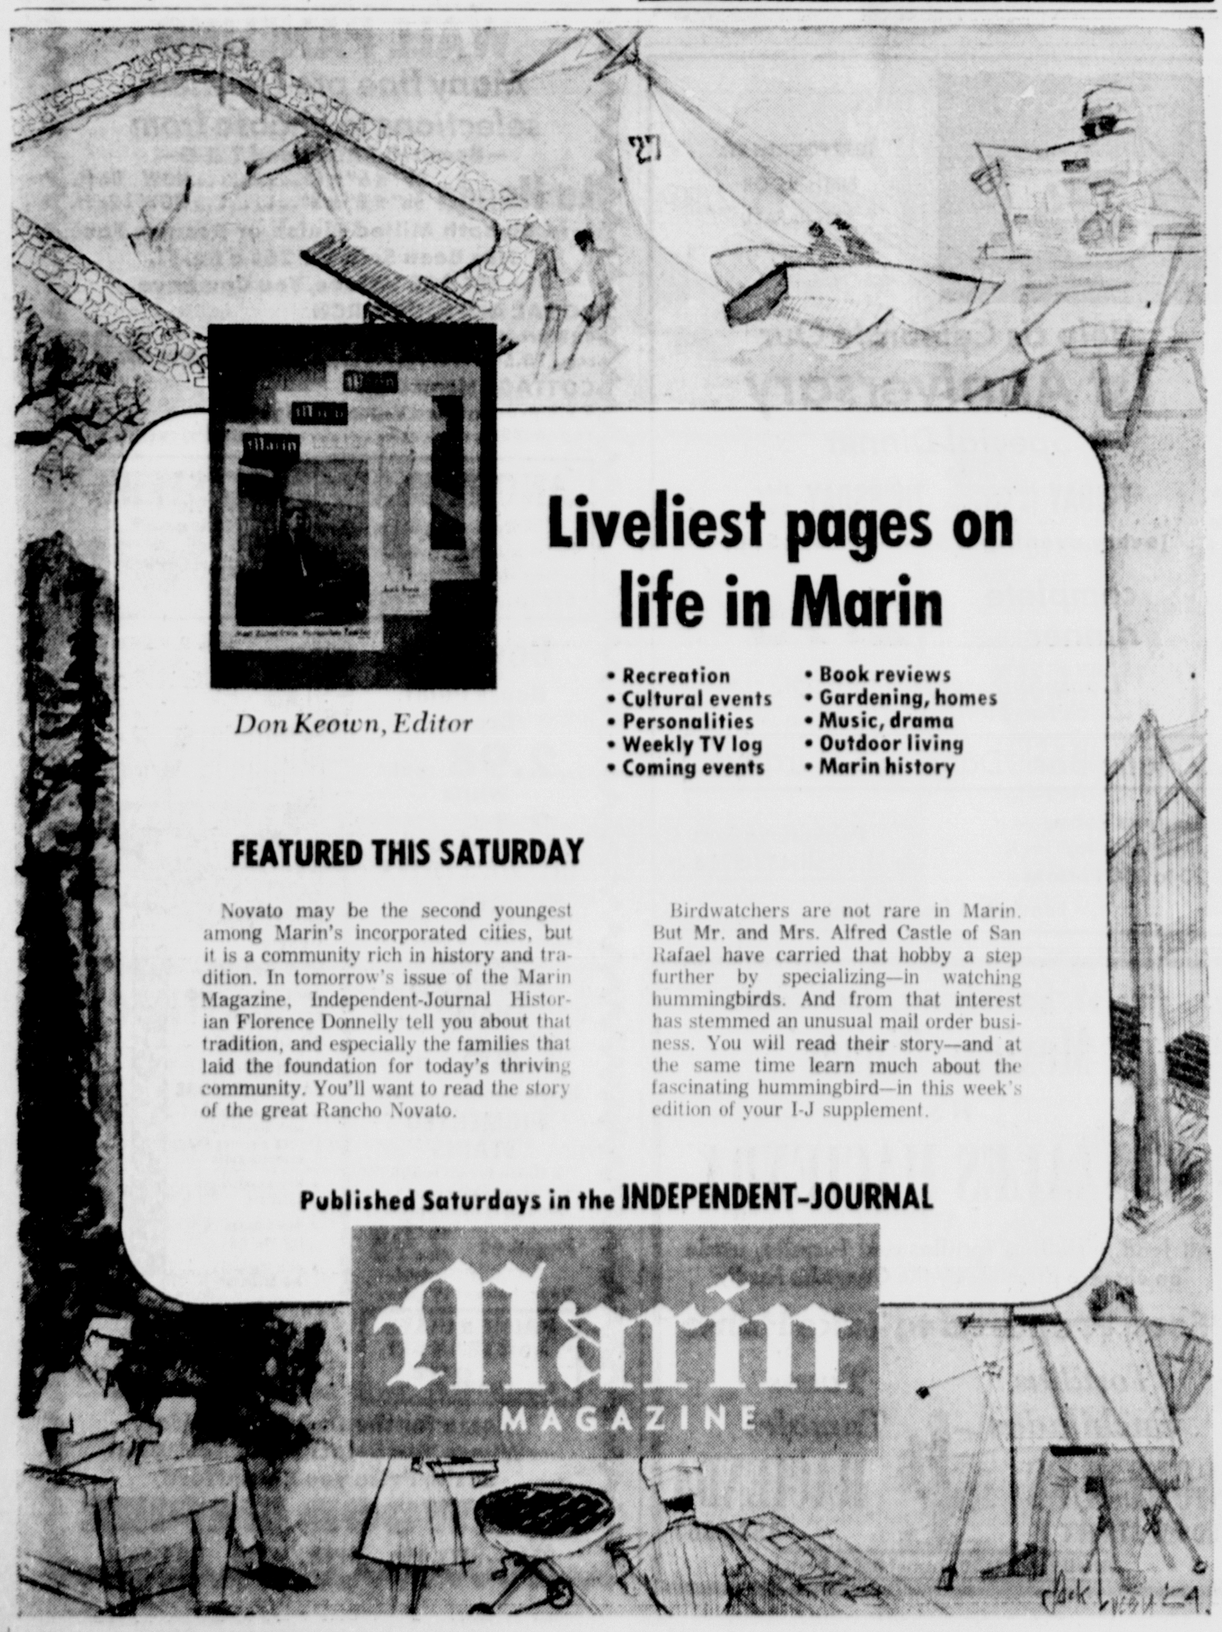

Governor Signs Two Marin Bills

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed into law two more bills by Marin legislators.

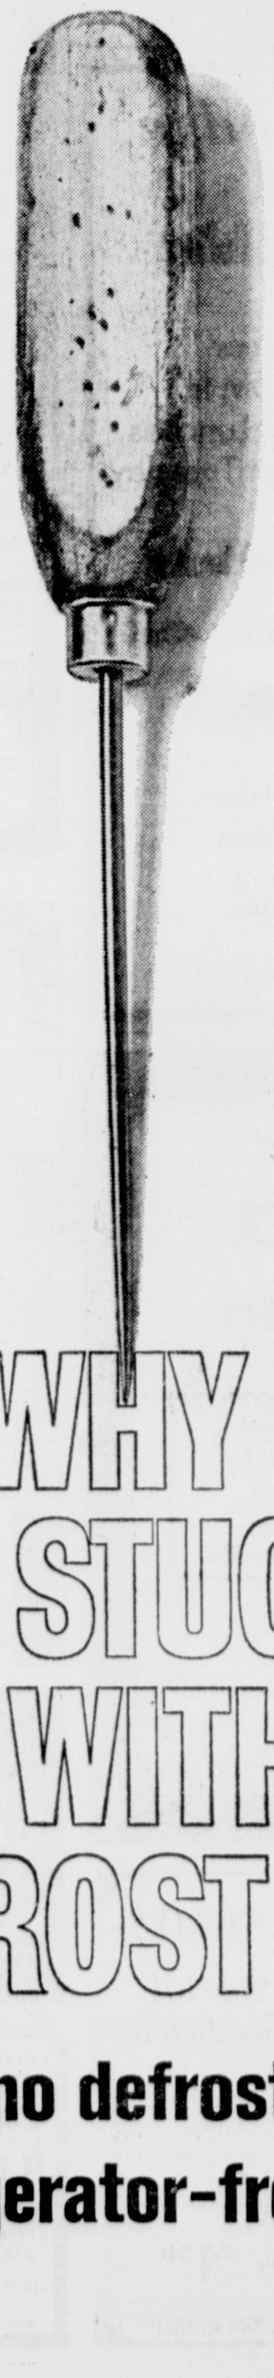

One is SB 732 by Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael. This measure requires that when a weighmaster is weiging any earthmoving vehicle, the weight of the driver will be included in the gross weight.

The other is AB 767 by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, which broadens the language of the State Fish and Game Code as it applies to shellfish cultivation. The State Department of Fish and Game asked for this measure to clarify "foggy areas" in the law and to raise the tax on oysters from one cent to five cents per gallon.

Novato may be the second youngest among Marin's incorporated cities, but it is a community rich in history and tradition. In tomorrow's issue of the Marin Magazine, Independent-Journal Historian Florence Donnelly tell you about that tradition, and especially the families that laid the foundation for today's thriving community. You'll want to read the story of the great Rancho Novato.
Birdwatchers are not rare in Marin. But Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Castle of San Rafael have carried that hobby a step further by specializing—in watching hummingbirds. And from that interest has stemmed an unusual mail order business. You will read their story—and at the same time learn much about the fascinating hummingbird—in this week's edition of your I-J supplement.

Public Shuns Talks On Larkspur Plan

Larkspur Planning Commission, bemoaning the lack of citizen interest, last night opened its second and last required public hearing on a 25-year general plan for the city, then continued it until 8 p.m. Aug. 12.

With only 11 persons in the audience at start of the hearing, and five at the close, Commissioner C. K. White bemoaned the public's apathy and suggested the long delay before the hearing is resumed.

"Maybe we can build up some public interest," he said. "We've just got a bomb on our hands . . . People have been wholly conspicuous for their absence."

The commission agreed to notify all Larkspur citizen groups in an attempt to stimulate interest.

Last night's session consisted of a lengthy review of objectives of the plan, to provide the community with a broad guide for its physical development in anticipation of an estimated population increase from the present 9,400 to 20,000 by 1985.

John David Erickson, city planning consultant, listed objectives as protection and enhancement of the present residential character of the community, development of a policy framework and residential density designations to assure the best physical development of remaining open land, and creation of a centrally-located community park and recreation area.

Other aims are provision of area for light industrial development, establishment of a new alignment for the major traffic route (Magnolia Avenue), revitalization of the existing downtown shopping center, and encouragement of attention to high urban design standards for development of an attractive townscape.

In addition, said Erickson, the plan seeks to help provide a well-designed flood control channel useful to public recreation potentials along Corte Madera Creek, and to develop additional park and playground areas in growing neighborhoods.

The general plan is not confined to the 1,800 acres within the city limits, but extends to a broader scheme of some 2,500 acres, with the additional area mostly north of Larkspur.

Asked by Commissioner R. H. Lee how the objective of high urban standards could be maintained, Erickson said either a planning director could be engaged or a consultant used. He also discussed possibility of a sub-committee being appointed by the commisision to pass on architectural standards.

Largest objection to development plans offered by Erickson is expected to be the so-called Larkspur Downtown Center plan. This measure to revitalize the old business district involves an area bounded roughly by King to Post streets and by Hawthorne Avenue and the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way.

Erickson said although earlier suggestion that Magnolia Avenue be blocked along that section may not be advisable, his plan would "de-emphasize" the street's use and a main thoroughfare instead be established along the railroad right-of-way just east of Magnolia Avenue.

At the commission's request Erickson also has provided an alternate location plan which would place the downtown center east of the railroad tracks and south of Doherty Drive.

The existing center would then be at least partially rezoned back to residential, Erickson said. Commissioners agreed such a move might bring strong protests from land owners who feel property values would be decreased with the zoning change.

Thunderstorms Lash Midwest, Then Clear Up

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Severe thunderstorms which lashed seven states in the Midwest diminished in most areas, with early morning activity confined mostly to sections of Wisconsin and northern Michigan.

Thundershowers which broke out yesterday from Virginia to Texas ended the skies were clear from Maine to Texas. Heaviest rainfall — four inches — doused Springfield, in southwestern South Carolina.

The Midwest storm belt extended across sections of the Dakotas and Nebraska through Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and northern Michigan. Heavy rain, hail and strong winds swept many sections.

School Tax Up In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Because of some unexpected revenue, the Los Angeles Board of Education has set the city school tax rate at $4.24 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The figure — approved yesterday — is 4.8 cents lower than had been anticipated. It exceeds last year's rate by 2.88 cents.

Superintendent of Schools Jack P. Crowther said he and his staff had figured on a 4 per cent hike in revenue from assessed valuation. But they learn earlier this week that a 6 per cent boost was likely.

This means, Crowther said, that the school system will have an extra $1.2 million to apply toward reduction of the proposed levy.

Full Crime Coverage Is In Public Interest

American pretrial news coverage has come under increasing attack since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Those who would oppose the unrestricted reporting of crime news apparently favor the British system of pretrial reporting, where a news blackout is imposed until the case comes to trial.

We disagree with those who would impose restrictions on the reporting of crime news.

For nearly 200 years, the American press has enjoyed relative freedom in pretrial coverage. We believe the press has utilized that freedom with discretion, and the over-all effect has been for the good of the general public, not an infringement on the rights of the accused or denial of a fair trial to the accused.

The movement to shackle the press is not just talk. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach in April ordered U.S. Justice Department personnel to limit pretrial disclosures to the basic facts of a case, withholding, in particular, confessions and other incriminating statements.

In other areas, law enforcement officers and prosecutors have been advised to limit release of information to the press in advance of criminal trials.

Such limitations on the release of information can lead to outright censorship. We believe the public can suffer far greater harm from a news blackout than from an over-exposure to the press.

News media have compiled statistics showing that of an estimated 40,000 jury trials involving major crimes in 1963 and 1964, only three convictions were actually reversed on the grounds that prejudicial pretrial publicity deprived the defendant of his right to a fair trial.

On the other hand, the full and accurate reporting of crime news as it occurs has a useful purpose.

Coverage of crime news gives the public a continual check on the effectiveness and honesty of law enforcement. It alerts the citizen to threats of lawlessness and vice. Often it brings forth individuals who have information helpful in solving a crime or in apprehending a suspect.

Rights of individuals are protected, not by suppression of news but by day-to-day coverage.

In totalitarian countries, a citizen may be arrested and held without trial for long periods, or disappear entirely.

In America, each case from arrest to conclusion is exposed to press coverage. Innocent or guilty, the individual held in custody has constitutional rights—to have counsel, to know the charges against him, to a speedy and impartial trial, etc.

Newspapers are quick to report instances where individuals are deprived of rights or are mistreated by police.

An inmate of a Southern Michigan prison, learning of the proposed clampdown on crime news, wrote recently in the prison newspaper:

"As distasteful as adverse publicity is, it might be better to be 'spotlighted' momentarily than to be abused in darkness."

The best way to insure that the rights of individuals are protected is for a vigorous and unshackled press to keep the public fully informed of crime news, before, during and after trial.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Stevenson Loss Personally Felt By Friends Throughout Marin

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

THE SUDDEN PASSING of Adlai Stevenson was a shock to the world.

And especially so to his friends in Marin County, where many Democratic volunteers got into politics, largely through their admiration for Adlai.

Stevenson was honorary chairman of the Marin Democratic Assembly.

His loss is being mourned throughout the country, but to many Democrats in Marin the loss is probably more personal.

THE LEGISLATURE has wound up its session, and you would think politics would slow down a bit during these vacation months, but not so.

Everyone is trying to run for some office, or attempting to get his friend to try.

Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, San Francisco Democrat, has been mentioned as governor material; by no less a personage than Gov. Edmund G. Brown himself.

On the Republican side, you have all kinds of candidates, topped by the Reagan-Kuchel feud.

REMEMBER THAT 26 Million Club started in Larkspur by TV man Fred Ullner? Well, the local club is more or less on the inactive status now because Ullner has been so busy with his television business. Most of the club's activities have been transferred to headquarters in Minneapolis.

But he promises that if Ronald Reagan takes the plunge to run for governor, he (Ullner) will reactivate the 26 Million Club locally and pitch in for the actor.

THIS WEEKEND'S Western States Democratic Conference in San Francisco has been called off because of Stevenson's death.

But there are other events that will be coming up fast and furious.

On Saturday, Republicans of the First Congressional District will meet at the Flamingo Hotel in Santa Rosa for a precinct training seminar.

Dr. Gaylord B. Parkinson, state GOP chairman, says the seminar is designed to teach Republicans the most effective techniques in precinct work in preparation for the 1966 elections.

Assemblyman Robert T. Monagan, Assembly minority leader, will be luncheon speaker at the Flamingo.

NEXT THURSDAY night, July 22, you'll get a chance to hear a first-hand report on the legislative session which just ended.

Three legislators will be at Sabella's in Mill Valley as guests of the Marin chapter of California Republican League.

Sen. John F. McCarthy, Assemblyman William T. Bagley, both of Marin, and Assemblyman John Veneman of Stanislaus County will give the public the "inside story on 'Petulant Pat' and 'Jocular Jess'," according to the sponsors.

Lieutenant's Protest A Sign Of Maturity?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Editor Craemer, in the full flush of the chase, howls for the pelt of Lieutenant Steinke, who refused to serve in Viet Nam. According to Editor Craemer, American moral fiber is somehow symbolized by the application of "the soldier's code: Ours not to reason why; ours but to do or die."

If Editor Craemer is correct in his evaluation of American morality, why, then we truly have become one with the amoral peoples who have played the deadly game of Follow the Leader. If otherwise, why, then we are still blessed with the ability to develop and follow our individual, often painful, processes of maturation.

San Quentin Likes Education Editorial

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Just a note to express gratitude for the editorial, and the manner in which it was written, in your edition on the evening of July 6, 1965. The subject was, "Special Bouquets, Best Wishes to Bayview Grads."

In our nation San Quentin was one of the first prisons to reorganize its educational program. It was one of the first to turn confusion into order, thereby developing a positive educational program. During this beginning, the so-called inmate teaching staff was abolished and conventional methods were put into effect.

We were likewise most impressed in the quality of all the elements making up our commencement exercise that you referred to. The student body and teaching staff appreciates the attitude of our neighboring daily in recognizing these positive gains.

Since we are, in a sense, a service agency for the community in California, it is through your interest and mode of communication that many of the citizens and taxpayers learn of the program they are supporting.

Poverty War Called Bureaucrat Bonanza

Editor, Independent-Journal:

If we still have "Pockets of Poverty" after 32 years of Planned Economics, is it not time to study the causes, for instance:

Indiscriminate immigration; destroying good food in order to raise prices; paying farmers to not raise crops; subsidizing shipments of wheat to declared enemies; encouraging businessmen to trade with enemies; penalizing workers for "over-production"; labor union monopolies; exempting their investments from income tax; minimum wage laws; wage demands which force manufacturers to move factories abroad; exorbitant corporation taxes; excessive regulation and competition by government; unjust inheritance and gift taxes; graduated income tax, which discourages incentive; ever-increasing social security tax; welfare programs which tend to demoralize recipients; government lending money which it borrows at higher rates of interest, subsidizing rents.

Thomas Jefferson said: "I place economy among the first and most important virtues, and public debt as the greatest danger to be faced."

LBJ declared his intentions (Congressional Record, Feb. 6, 1964, page 2227): "We are going to try to take all of the money that we think is unnecessarily being spent and take it from the 'haves' and give it to the 'have-nots' that need it so much."

President Lincoln said: "You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich." V. Orval Watts put it this way: "Greed for power disguises itself as altruism."

Anyhow the "War on Poverty" appears to be a Bonanza for Bureaucrats!

"What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

No 'Soldier's Code' In U.S. Services

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Ye editorial of July 10, 1965, is marginal. For Mr. Craemer to affirm that the "soldier's code" is "Ours is not to reason why; ours but to do or die" is his opinion. It is not a matter of fact per U.S. Army regulations (or Army of the U.S.)—or the Marine Corps.

Balaklava occurred Oct. 17, 1854. Lord Tennyson on Dec. 2 of the same year noted in the London Times the phrase that "someone had blundered" and thence wrote "The Charge of the Light Brigade." Hence,

Someone had blundered.
Theirs not to make reply
Theirs not to reason why
Theirs but to do and die . . .
And all the world wondered.

The poem is a classic example of the slavish tribute to military ignorance.

It is because U.S. troops do reason that, to some extent, we militarily succeed. When the Captain is killed the Lieutenant reasons; when the Lieutenant is a corpse the Corporal reasons. Our Armed Forces are not yet robots.

Apparently my grammar teacher fudged regarding Mr. Stephen Decatur. As I recall: "Our country! In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right, but when she is wrong may we have the courage to make her right."

Many of the men in Viet Nam are draftees or perhaps reservists. Mr. Craemer's offbeat remarks regarding draftees or reservists are crude. On the other hand let us not make holy monks of alumni of the various universities of the Armed Forces. Just a year ago there was a type of scandal at the Air Force Academy when many adjourned due to cheating.

De Gaulle Trying To Eat Cake Without Sharing It With U.S.

WASHINGTON—There is no secret about what President Charles de Gaulle is after. He is after three things and to him they are all of the same piece.

He wants the advantages of the European Common Market without the European institutions of the Common Market.

He wants the protection of the American nuclear umbrella without the presence of the United States through NATO.

We wants French military superiority on the continent of Europe. He aims to achieve this by getting a nuclear capability for France while denying forever a nuclear capability to West Germany.

ALL OF THESE aims run counter to the purposes of the U.S. They also run counter to the hopes, wishes and purposes of all the other Common Market countries, Italy, Germany, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg—as well as Britain.

De Gaulle's European partners want to see the Common Market run by a European parliament as provided in the Treaty of Rome.

De Gaulle's NATO partners want the presence of the U.S. in Europe—not our withdrawal. They know that without NATO the whole Atlantic alliance would crumble.

De Gaulle's NATO partners want to see German military force embedded in the fabric of NATO. They know that only as Germany is treated as an equal partner in NATO can the risk of a resurgent German nationalism be averted.

French withdrawal from the Common Market negotiations on agricultural policy directly affects the U.S.

For more than a year and a half important trade negotiations have been going forward at Geneva under the auspices of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT).

While these negotiations are pretty dull to all but the experts, the outcome is crucial to opening world markets for both industrial and agricultural products of all countries equally. At stake is economic cooperation versus economic war.

THE IMPRESSION has been that these negotiations—known as the "Kennedy round"—have been getting absolutely nowhere. Now comes a new shaft of light from a report just brought back from Geneva to Congress by Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, R-St. Louis, in his unique role as congressional delegate.

He finds that the Geneva talks are just now beginning to get somewhere and his report to Congress, which the administration found so informative and realistic that it has sent it to businessmen throughout the country, is: "There are now signs that, given judicious and tough bargaining, United States negotiators can bring a successful conclusion to the present round."

Curtis' recent mission to Geneva casts Congress in a new role created by the Trade Expansion Act. This act not only removed trade negotiations from the State Department and placed them directly under the president, but also provided for participation by members of Congress. So far, Curtis is the only congressman who has gone to Geneva, but his own force and knowledge has made the congressional presence meaningful.

NOW THE OUTLOOK is again dimmed by de Gaulle's action, bringing the Common Market to a standstill. As Representative Curtis points out, only by bargaining simultaneously on both agricultural and industrial exports can the U.S. achieve any significant freeing of trade for both.

But as long as France prevents the Common Market from reaching a common policy on agricultural trade policy, the talks with the Common Market countries become fruitless.

Political Storm Near Over Wheat Supports

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—The politics-loaded issue of the price of bread to tens of millions of consumers is at the bottom of the torrid wrangling over the Johnson administration's omnibus farm price support bill.

Under this generally little-noticed multi-billion-dollar measure affecting every major segment of agriculture, wheat growers would get a $150-million-a-year increase in price support subsidies — by hiking the so-called "users' tax" on millers and other domestic wheat buyers.

OPPONENTS CLAIM this would boost the price of bread two cents a loaf.

A Republican proposal, sponsored by Rep. Albert Quie of Minnesota, would give wheat growers a $250 million increase in price supports — with the additional subsidy money coming from the general funds of the treasury.

Quie contends this would not entail a raise in bread costs.

Strikingly indicative of the tense battling over this politics-charged issue is that the 36-member House Agriculture Committee, in a closed-door session, split 17 to 17 on Quie's plan—thus defeating it under the rules. Seven of the 25 Democrats lined up with 10 of the 11 Republicans to support it.

Heading the Democratic bolters in this significant backstage vote was Rep. Harold Cooley of North Carolina, committee chairman and nominal sponsor of the administration's bill.

This highly uncertain fight is far from over. Quie is set to again offer his proposal when the full House considers the heavily-embattled omnibus farm measure in about a month. Meanwhile, both sides are furiously at it hammer-and-tongs, privately and publicly, to win backing.

The administration's $250 million increase would be offset by eliminating entirely $100 million in price supports on grain sold abroad.

Thus, net gain to the growers would be $150 million.

Representative Quie proposes to boost the domestic price supports by $150 million—and to continue unchanged the present $100 million subsidy on exported wheat. That would provide the farmers with a $250 million income gain as against the Johnson administration's $150 million.

Also, Quie holds, consumers would not be directly affected, as the money to pay for his plan would come from the treasury instead of raising the domestic wheat "users' tax."

Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman sardonically pooh-poohs the bread issue. In a Minnesota speech he declared:

"WHILE IT IS natural to associate bread with the food needs of low-income and needy families, those who would exploit this association for their own purposes need to be reminded that this is a different world for the poor than when Marie Antoinette advised that they eat cake. Low-income and no-income families today receive substantially improved diets through the enlarged (federal) direct food distribution program and the expanding food stamp program."

Marin Freedom Fighters Wax Literary In Letters To Home

"I WAS TOTALLY surprised at the beauty of the countryside here. Everything is quite green; (like) living in a salad. Lots of trees, birds and insects."

This is an excerpt from a letter written by Marty Olson, 19, of Kentfield from Carroll County, Miss.

It is one of many gathered by Mrs. Elizabeth Williams of Mill Valley, whose daughter, Margaret Kibbee, is a volunteer summer civil rights worker in Mississippi.

Parents, whose children might have been indifferent English students, says Biz, are "moved, surprised and proud when their children's letters fairly vibrate with a power of description they never recognized before." Excerpts from letters, dealing with people, spirit, "war," and chitterlings follow:

"Breakfast is grits, bread and milk," writes David Durbin, 18, of Larkspur. "Grits are a cereal made from corn which we eat with a fork." Miss Kibbee, 19, comments: "I hate chitlands." She refers to chitterlings, which, according to Funk and Wagnals, are the small intestines of the pig.

ON PEOPLE, Miss Kibbee notes: "Most of the (Negro) people are very nice to me when I canvass their homes for voter registration. They give me food and talk for a long time. Most . . . are very poor. They can only chop cotton for $3 or $4 a day. . . . The people are very brave."

"Most of the whites are very poor here," writes Olson.

Bob Coffman, 18, Novato, writes: "The movement is a way of life and the meaning of freedom becomes so much more real. In a way this is a war, but a very fine war to be a part of—that is, if you are on this side. The other side will not be slaughtered, but instead disappear."

"About my experience in jail," continued Coffman, "there is no need to worry. I had a chance to think about why I was here . . . and to talk to girls who had had experience in the state, which helped a lot. Finding out about other counties sort of brings back your perspective."

On spirit, Olson relates how some people in the movement believe that, if social patterns can be changed, the change will teach people "to create new, perfect methods of social integration. . . . This philosopsy is called Freedom High . . . a beautiful idea, but rather idealistic. . . . I'm somewhere in the middle."

The Marin youngsters conclude letters with such expressions as "Say hello to everyone and tell them to write the politicians to support the challenge (on seating the Mississippi delegation)," "Yours for freedom" and "I love you and miss you."

A WHITE-HAIRED woman was in the Mill Valley library the other day when she recognized a retired Tamalpais High School teacher. She said to the teacher, "I'm deaf."

The other woman pointed to her own hearing aid and said, "Me, too."

Then the white-haired woman said, "Did you hear about Irv Dowd dying?" "No," replied her friend. "What a shame. A heart attack, I guess."

Irv, who once rented donkeys to Mill Valley visitors in the days of the rails so they might climb the mountain, was a Mill Valley institution. It was said that, if one wanted to see a real large collection of other old-timers, one had but to have attended the final tribute to the moving man.

And a baby was born—Erin Marie Roach. Nancy Roach entered the hospital at about 1 a.m. and produced a daughter at about 7 a.m. "It was an easy delivery," reports Nancy. There is really nothing like the pride over the first born—the joy of life.

ART BUCHWALD

Great Minds Run Parallel, Even On Interplanet Level

WASHINGTON—When it was discovered via American and Soviet space probes that there was indeed life on Mars, an immediate foreign ministers conference in Geneva was called to decide what to do about it.

The United States, through its secretary of state, announced that America had no territorial designs on the planet and the U.S. position was that the Martians should be free to decide their own government, providing, of course, that it was not Communist-dominated or leftist-inspired.

The Soviet minister said that if the Martians wanted to overthrow the reactionary rulers, who were probably exploiting the Martian masses, his country would have no choice but to come to their aid. He said that if the Martians requested it the Soviet Union would supply them with planes, rockets and up-to-date radar.

The United States said that if the Soviet Union interfered it would have no choice but to send Marines to Mars to protect the lives of free Martians as well as American tourists who soon would be visiting there.

THE REAL PROBLEM was that nobody knew what kind of government the Martians had.

All the photographs showed that there was life on Mars, but unfortunately there were no flags in the pictures to indicate where the Martians stood.

Both the Soviet Union and the United States were at a stalemate until someone came up with a brilliant solution.

Mars would be divided in half. The northern part would be known as North Viet Mars and the south would be known as South Viet Mars.

The Soviets would be in charge of the north, the U.S. in charge of the south, and free elections would be promised within two years of partition.

The United States immediately set up a Mars aid program to give the Martians economic and financial assistance when the time came. It also trained military assistance teams which would land with the aid people and train the Martians in defense against the north.

The Soviets divided North Viet Mars into communes and trained political commissars and technicians to go into the country and communize it.

IN THE MEANTIME, Communist China, which had not been asked to the conference, started making its own plans for Mars. It announced an Afro-Asian-Mars conference to take place in Peking, where both the Western "bandits" and Soviet "deviationists" would be attacked. China said, as soon as it had enough space ships, it would send one million Chinese volunteers to Mars to save the planet from American and Soviet imperialism.

Although the French had nothing to do with the space explorations, they insisted Mars should become part of a Third Force under the direction of General de Gaulle.

Unbeknownst to the great powers on earth, the Martians were holding a summit meeting of their own on the Mars Bar Canal.

"Then it is agreed upon," the Grand Clyde of Mare Cimmerium said, "we shall set up an East Earth and a West Earth. We shall have the east and Trivium Charontis will have the west."

The Trivium Charontis Super Zilch said, "We shall hold elections within two years and let the Earth people decide for themselves what form of government they want."

"I CANNOT STATE strongly enough," said the Grand Clyde of Mare Cimmerium, "that if Trivium Charontis does anything to violate the treaty we will be forced to use all the weapons at our disposal."

"And I can assure you, Grand Clyde, Trivium Charontis will not stand by and see West Earthlings swallowed up by Mare Cimmerium. If need be, we shall use the clong."

The Grand Clyde said, "We shall see which system prevails."

COUNTY COMMENT

FUSSELMAN

"FIRE TAXES RATE Break Approved." That was the headline of a story by reporter Richard Lyttle in the I-J Tuesday. The first paragraph was as follows: "The county board of supervisors took a modest step last night toward correcting double taxation in Marin Couunty."

Now, it is certainly commendable to avoid double payment on anything. The very clear reporting on the proceedings indicated a somewhat confused situation. Some members of a committee wanted to withdraw their signatures from certain sections, and were ruled out of order by the board chairman. Another committee member didn't like certain parts of the report but was not about to withdraw his signature.

New legislation permits cities fire districts and community service special districts (performing fire protection functions) to petition the board of supervisors for exclusion from the costs of structural fire protection by the county fire department. This they were doing.

PLAYING WITH FIRE, I think we will all agree, is a dangerous thing to do. Most of those involved in the dispute before the board have never lived through a real fire scare here in Marin. I have, and a lot of "old-timers" have had the same experience. Fire is no respecter of boundaries. It goes where it can and it goes lightening-fast too. Some years ago a fire raged day after day in the hills west of Ross Valley. People were frantic as the wind could have changed direction at any minute. Red Hill, at the Hub intersection in San Anselmo, was a blazing torch around midnight one year. And a fire which started from the back-firing of a tractor on a ranch at Novato raced over the hills to the area back of Fairfax.

You know, a structural fire can start a grass or brush and timber conflagration, dangerous to our watersheds, as quickly as from any other source. These watershed lands are vital to all of us. So, I am sorry to see this disregard of the principle that what affects one area has its repercussions in many other areas. There is certainly a lack of consistency, in one minute urging consolidation of services in the county and then in the next demanding separation in performance and costs.

IT IS JUST AS logical to insist that cities be excluded from the tax to carry on county planning activities. This is certainly an unincorporated area operation. The cities all have their own planning commissions, but it is obvious that all property values are affected by the decisions of this body. There is no difference in the basic principles involved.

NEXT FRIDAY I hope to comment on the confused dollar approach that was reported in the article Tuesday.

Ancient Custom Still Remains,

SANAA, Yemen (AP) — The average city-dwelling male in this long-isolated country can marry, beget children, and be buried alongside his wife, all without ever seeing her eat.

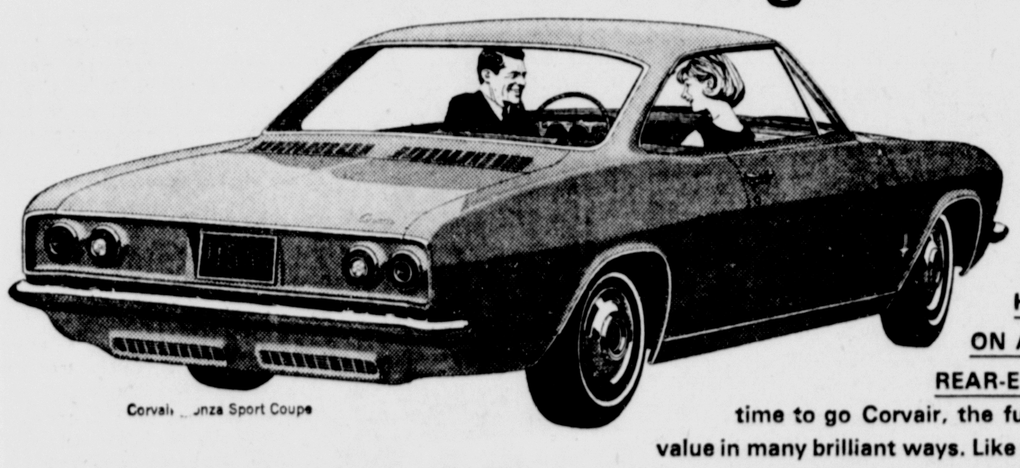

Yemeni tradition holds that a wife, who is allowed to remove her veils in front of her husband or brother, must never be seen eating by her spouse. The reason for this is lost in the country's ancient traditions, but the custom is rigidly observed in the cities.

In the countryside, however, women not only can be seen eating, they can also circulate without veils. This is because the strenuous working pace of rural life in Yemen leaves no time for such oriental enigmas as trying to guess just who is under all that camouflage.

Merced means mercy. Capt. Gabriel Morago named the river "El Rio de Nuestra Senora de la Merced," the river of our Lady of Mercy (The Virgin Mary), because of the joy that he and the members of his exploring party felt over its refreshing waters after trekking forty miles through a waterless country.

Alchemist's Land Of Earth, Air, Water

Water-girt, wind-freshened, Marin County's vigorous hills and hollows offer living more like an island than anywhere else in California.

Sweeping down the eastern side of Richardson Bay at the right are the homes along Tiburon Boulevard—Strawberry Manor, Reed, Little Reed Heights, Bel Aire, Tiburon itself.

Project Head Start Aids Children In Poverty War

federal funds to give these children, during the summer preceding their first year in school, an eight-week "head start" on their middle class home competitors.

Since June 28, the 67 Marin City boys and girls, all aged 4 or 5, have been attending the "Head Start" project at Manzanita School, where they are supervised and taught by a staff of 16 persons.

The cost per child is $170. The federal government pays 90 per cent while the Sausalito School District pays the other 10 per cent.

At the school the children play games, listen to and tell stories, paint, try to identify different objects, look at pictures, watch movies, listen to records and are given physical examinations.

From all these activities the children learn, in the words of Manzanita project director Mrs. Santa Fe Moses, "how to live."

"Without this program," Mrs. Moses said yesterday, "some of these children would come to school in the fall without enough of a vocabulary to communicate with either their teachers or their peers."

Mrs. Moses hopes, as all educators do, that the program will teach them how to get along in the structured society of the school room.

When the children entered the program many were shy and withdrawn, some could not identify such simple objects as horses, some were afraid to compete for fear of losing, most had a short attention span and most had trouble following directions.

Mrs. Moses said she has seen some improvement in the project's first two weeks. She expects to see more.

One thing Mrs. Moses wants the children to learn in the classroom is what she alternates in calling "self concept" and "self image."

"These children often look on their race, their color, as something bad, something which will hold them down and out of which no good can come," she explained.

"I have tried to get members of their race as teachers and teaching assistants so they can see them working in a job of authority, alongside the other teachers."

Equally important with the children's classroom activities in the program is the rigorous series of physical examinations they are given.

They are tested for general health, and their teeth, eyes and ears are checked, according to project nurse Kay Gillis.

Miss Gillis said her examinations of the children indicate their major problem lies in poor dental care. After this, she said, comes poor nutritional habits.

"About one-third of the children come to school in the morning without having eaten breakfast. Their parents work and no one is there to prepare it for them. As a result they get headaches and suffer dizzy spells here in school," she said.

Miss Gillis is planning a health education program she can take to the children and their parents in the remaining weeks of the program.

She has scheduled a puppet show on dental care for the children and has arranged for a dentist to speak at a meeting of parents next Thursday.

Though just two weeks into the project, Mrs. Moses is calling it a success if for no other reason than that doing something is better than doing nothing.

The federal funds have been allocated only for an eight-week program this summer but Mrs. Moses wants to take it a step farther. She has drawn up plans for a similar program to start on a full-time basis in September.

The county agencies, Stte Sup. of Public Instruction Max Rafferty and Gov. Edmund Brown have all approved the plan, she said.

Now all Washington has to do is say yes."

County's Legal Violation Dodged

By RICHARD LYTTLE

It is a cast of "button, button, whose got the button?" when it comes to legal prosecution for violations of Marin County building, zoning and education laws.

Actually, Dist. Otty. Bruce B. Bales still has the button, even though the board of supervisors and Couny Administrator Alan Bruce thought during budget time last month that County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney was going to get it.

The button in this case is which office is responsible for prosecuting the violations.

The situation is so unclear that a deputy sheriff recently walked away from an earth dumping operation on county land at the edge of Richardson Bay.

In his report Monday, Deputy Sheriff G. J. Bartolotti said he advised the county public works department to "contact the county counsel or deputy district attorney for further advice on the matter for this was a civil matter.

"No further action was taken by this deputy at this time," Bartolotti wrote.

Engineer Jack S. Chamberlain of the county public works department reported to the sheriff's office that Tom E. Nowell of Nowell Real Estate, Waldo Point, had ordered Holtzinger Brothers of Corte Madera to dump fill on county land 50 to 80 feet beyond the county property line to the rear of Nowell's office.

Chamberlain issued a stop work order on driver George Hurley Manson of Vallejo, operating a Holtzinger truck.

Since then, steady hauling appears to have stopped.

Supervisors, wanting to get firmer control on dumping, excavation and other activities done without permit, asked Bales to deputize County Counsel Maloney to handle both the civil and criminal aspects of the job. Bales said he would be willing to do this if it were legal.

Today Bales said he will not deputize the county counsel until he has an opinion from the State Attorney General's office.

Bales fears that he might delegate the responsibility for prosecution, but at the same time retain liability in case there should be legal errors in the prosecution.

County Administrator Bruce said budgets for both county counsel and district attorney's offices were predicated on the supposition the transfer would be made.

"I hope this gets worked out very promptly," Bruce said.

Asst. Public Works Director Arthur T. Knutson said violations have supplied his office with almost continual frustrations.

Men in the office spend considerable time investigating violations, but there is little to show for it when the evidence is placed in legal hands, Knutson declared.

Bruce said the violations are mostly worked out through injunctions and other civil proceedings and the criminal violation portion of the county code is seldom invoked.

It is very difficult to get a criminal conviction, Bales said.

CAN HE BRING HOME THE BACON?—Little Cherie Thompson hopes so, for that's her pig she's beaming at and he is entered in the livestock competition at the Sonoma County Fair which opens Wednesday at the Santa Rosa fairgrounds. The porker will be auctioned July 30, a day before the fair ends.

Sonoma County Fair To Open Wednesday

SANTA ROSA — The Sonoma County Fair will make its 1965 bow Wednesday at the Santa Rosa Fairgrounds, where it will provide varied entertainment for thousands of visitors for 11 days.

Gates will open at 10 a.m. daily.

The entertainment includes horse and dog shows, horse racing, exhibits, drill teams, odd athletic contests and dancing. For example, on July 25, which is designated Farmers' Day, the activities will include a sheep dog exhibition, pole climbing, a tug of war, a "donkey watermelon race," a barrel race, "varmint dogs," and a log bucking contest.

In addition, the fair features livestock judging competition which usually attracts many Marin participants.

The horse racing begins at 1:15 p.m. every day except for the 25th, when the Farmers' Day activities will occupy the racetrack grandstand. Harness and quarterhorses will run in the first few races before the thoroughbreds take over.

The John Strong Circus will play at the fair every day and a carnival is scheduled for 9:30 p.m. July 31, the final day of the fair. It will be preceded by a rodeo at 8:30 p.m.

A novel feature of the fair is the Senior Citizen program scheduled for 3 p.m. July 28. The day before, a roller derby contest will pit the San Francisco Bay Bombers against the New York Chiefs at 8:30 p.m.

Marinwood District Sets Budget Hikes

Directors of the Marinwood Community Services District last night adopted a budget of $100,549 for fiscal 1966, up $9,099 over last year.

Genevieve Bolding, district secretary, said the tax rate will remain at the maximum of $1 per $100 assessed valuation.

Main reasons for the increase are about $3,000 carried forward in encumbrances, increased salaries and fringe benefits for employees, and addition of a fulltime planting maintenance man.

There will be $1,500 set aside toward possible purchase of a new fire truck.

Directors decided against going outside the district to invite additional swimming pool members, instead asking for stricter policing to make sure only members are using the pool.

Last year there were 478 members. This season the total has dropped to 402.

Directors learned that the Marinwood Assn. wants to donate $200 to a public cause in the community. Recommendations were asked from the park and recreation and fire commissions.

Hospital District Requests Special Mental Health Tax

The Marin District board unanimously agreed today to ask the county to levy a special tax this fiscal year to raise $150,000 for the district's share of the cost of the planned $1,350,000 community mental health center at Marin General Hospital.

A tax rate of 4½ cents per $100 assessed valuation in the district will raise the needed funds, County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell has estimated.

Harold F. Riede, attorney for the district, advised after the meeting that money raised by the special tax can be used only for the center and projects related to it for retirement of $800,000 worth of bonds issued for construction of the hospital in 1952.

"In the event the mental health center project was abandoned, after the tax was levied, it is mostly likely that the money would be applied to retirement of outstanding bonds," Riede said.

"It has not yet been determined whether the money could be applied to other capital improvement projects."

The board had indicated during the meeting that it hoped the money raised by the tax could be applied to installation of an air conditioning system in the hospital and road repair on hospital grounds if not needed for the mental health center.

Townhouses Display Set At Peacock Gap

The Knoll, a new 3.5-million dollar townhouse development of D. M. Christensen Construction Co. at Peacock Gap, San Rafael, will open for inspection four model units, including one completely furnished four-bedroom home, on Saturday and Sunday.

Ultimate development of the eight-acre site approached from Biscayne Avenue will contain 82 townhouses. Streets are private. Aggregate paving is used to vary the asphalt paving. All utilities are underground, including a master television system.

Landscaping work with native plantings is being done by Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck, utilizing unusual lighting effects, stone walls and accents of brick paving. A private park has been reserved for recreation. The private Buckeye Club is for the use of residents and guests. Also contained in the park are a 75-foot swimming pool, children's pool, trellis-covered sun shelter, dressing and shower rooms rolling lawns and putting greens.

Living units have two-car garages, storage utility rooms and are available in one and two stories.

Planners and architects for the project are Bushnell, Jessup, Murphy and Van de Weghe. Sales are being handled by Fox and Carskadon.

Cyanamid Sets Mark

WAYNE, N. J. — American Cyanamid Co. had record earnings of $45,662,000 for the first six months of 1965—An increase of 13 per cent over the $40,504,000 reported for the first half of 1964. Earnings per share were $2.07 compared with $1.85 for the same period last year.

Stock Market Closes Mixed

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed mixed today with the list off slightly on average.

It was a very dull session except for the first hour which was fairly lively due to the transfer of some sizable blocks.

Prices were irregular throughout the session, however, and there was some softening toward the end.

Du Pont held a gain of closer to a point while Chrysler and Xerox were off about a point each.

Small losses were shown by General Motors, Jersey Standard and Ford.

Volume for the day as estimated at 3.9 million shares compared with 4.42 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Gains of fractions to a point were the rule among key stocks.

Exceptions included higher-priced Du Pont and IBM, each up about 2.

Chrysler and General Motors took fractional losses in a lackluster auto section. Eastern Air Lines was off a point in reaction to the selling of a big secondary offering of its stock. Most steels were off a little, with Bethlehem nudging higher.

Switches of big blocks reflected sporadic acticities by institutional investors. Avco was off 3/8 at 20 1/8 on 51,500 shares. Grand Union was off 3/8 at 27 1/2 on 31,300 shares. FMC Corp. was off 1/4 at 67 3/4 on 10,900 shares.

Pan American Sulphur's gain shaded below a point after a vigorous start on news of a bid for its assets. McKesson & Robbins was a fractional loser, paring a sharper loss. Time Inc. fell more than 3. Atlantic Coast Line lost 2.

Ahead a point or so were Pit-Addressograph, Storer Broadcasting and Bristol-Myers.

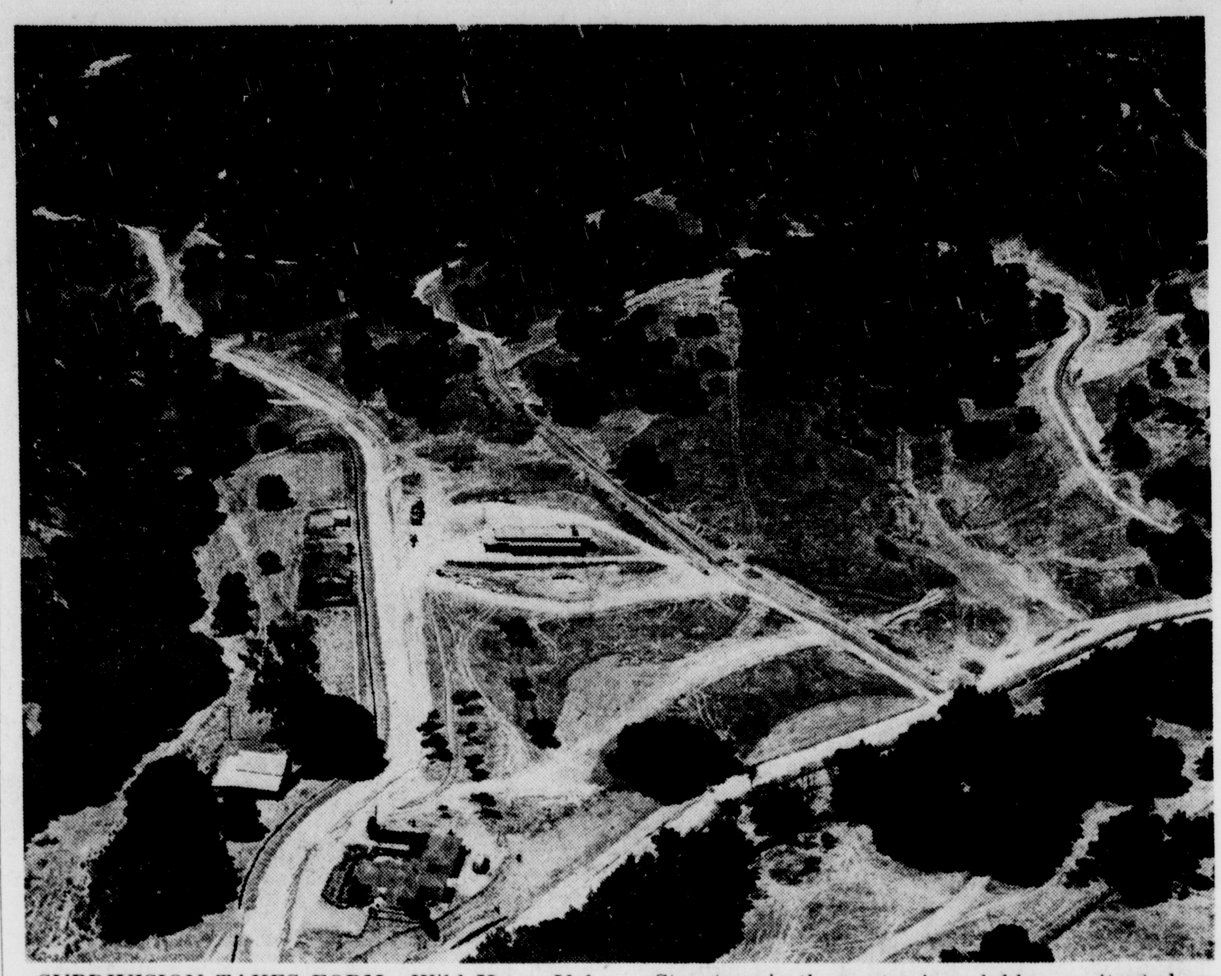

Delaware & Hudson and Delta Airlines fell more than a point each.

Prices were mixed in quiet trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Signal Earnings Hold

LOS ANGELES — Signal Oil and Gas Co. earnings for the first six months of 1965 are estimated at $14,236,000, compared with $14,303,000 during the first half of 1964. This brings earnings applicable to the common stock to $1.21 a share, the same as in the first half of 1964.

SUBDIVISION TAKES FORM—Wild Horse Valley, new 227-acre development of the Harry J. Heifetz Co. west of Novato city limits, will soon have graded roads and street improvements completed. Structure in the center is a clubhouse situated on a portion of the valley set aside for community recreation. Subdivision will have 97 homesites. (I-J-American Helicopters photo by Bob Hax)

THE KNOLL

GRAND OPENING SAT. & SUN., JULY 17 & 18 ... SEE THE ULTIMATE IN GRACIOUS LIVING

If sand, sea and sunshine give your heart a lift ...if magnificent scenery, rolling hills, majestic mountains appeal to your spirit...if sports and social activities are a pleasant part of your existence...if carefree, leisure living is your way of life...THEN "THE KNOLL" IS FOR YOU!

"THE KNOLL" is a private community of luxury townhouses located on eight magnificent acres in the heart of Peacock Gap, Marin County's most prestige recreational community, with a panoramic view of the Bay, Santa Margarita Range and Mt. Tamalpais. It offers every desired recreational facility. Many of the homes border directly on an 18 hole golf course, and all are within walking distance of the country clubs and pro-shop.

You'll be surrounded with beauty as each home is professionally landscaped to give you maximum privacy and tremendous outdoor living area. All utilities are underground, including a master television system, so that the tranquil charm of the area is preserved.

Choose your townhouse from several distinctive floor plans. One or two story homes with two to four bedrooms and two or three baths—each has its own two-car garage and ample off-street parking for your guests.

Each townhouse features everything to make housekeeping easy and convenient...dishwasher, garbage disposal, GE Americana range, some with self-cleaning ovens, two-door frost-free refrigerator, fireplace, skylights, carpeting and draperies.

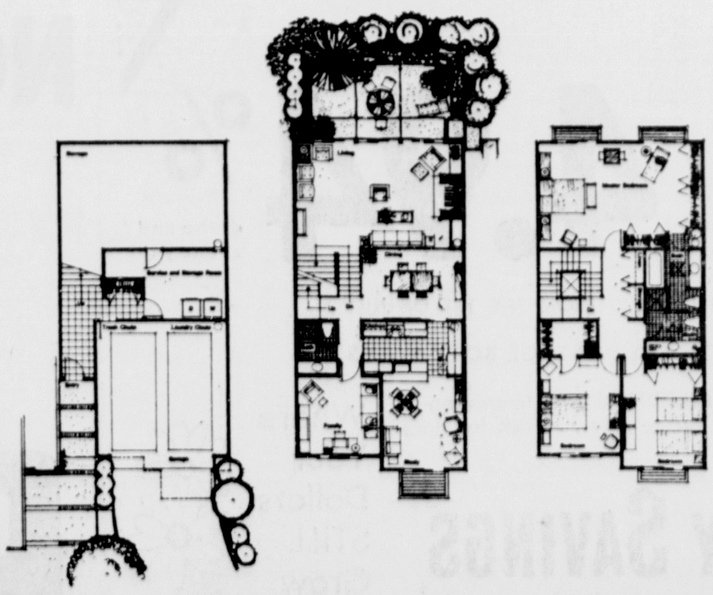

A private park has been designed exclusively for you and your guests where you can enjoy the many recreational facilities, including swimming in a 75 ft. pool, sauna steam baths and private putting greens. Marin Given Nod On Septic Tank Curbs

Through a county ordinance amendment, the Marin County Board of Supervisors may restrict installation of septic tanks in watershed lands, County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney reported today.

Supervisors were told last week that the county counsel and state department of health were in conflict, with the state saying the septic tank installations should be restricted and county counsel saying there was no legal way to do it.

County Sanitarian William Desmond asked the board to request a clarification. Maloney, in a letter to the board, said an ordinance amendment would be all that is necessary.

At issue was development of homes anticipated in the Nicasio Lake Watershed. Marin Municipal Water District does not own the land surrounding the lake.

Campout Planned

A campout will be held Wednesday at Camp Alice Eastwood sponsored by the Mill Valley Recreation Department. Youngsters nine years and older may sign up for the campout at Park, Alto or Old Mill School playgrounds from 1 to 5 p.m. daily. A fee is charged.

Ex-DeMolay's Post

Pvt. John A. Hinman II, past-master of the Mill Valley Chapter of the Mill Valley Chapter of Order of DeMolay, is serving with the Army Finance Corps in South Korea prior to assignment to Viet Nam.

It is estimated that replacement tires will represent three-quarters of total tire sales within the next few years.

County Planner Agenda Heavy With Hot Issues

Second hearing on the West Marin master plan, continued hearing on the master plan for parks, recreation and open space, and consideration of a use permit for Synanon Foundation's property at Marshall are just three of the controversial items that crowd the agenda for Monday's meeting of the Marin County Planning Commission.

Number one on the agenda is a report by Planning Director B. D. Dobbs on "urban development." This report was asked, on motion of commissioner Margaret Azevedo, after the vote to deny a density amendment for Marincello.

Mrs. Azevedo wanted to know what changes if any should be made in the county ordinance to allow for the "planned city concept."

Number Six on the agenda is a hearing on an amendment to the open area zoning ordinance allowing uses that would comply with the needs of the public agency that owns the land. This was requested by the Bolinas Harbor District in connection with the open area zoning proposed for Bolinas Lagoon.

Number Seven is the long-delayed hearing on the master plan for parks, recreation and open space that has been undergoing revision by the planning staff since it was approved several months ago by the parks and recreation commission.

Number Eight is the hearing on the West Marin master plan. It brought considerable complaint at the first hearing and consultants Harold and Mary Summers and Daniel P. Coleman were asked to make a report on the complaints at Monday's session.

Synanon's application for a permit to expand its facility at Marshall is the tenth item on the agenda. It promises to bring heated protests from some residents of Marshall.

Another controversial matter is the appeal of Stanley W. Taylor, under fire from Harbor Point neighbors on the Tiburon Peninsula for grading and tree cutting. He is appealing the zoning administrator's denial of variance and subdivision permit for further splitting of his property.

Other matters on the 34-item agenda include consideration of a tentative map of a 45-acre tract near the south side of Nicasio Reservoir, to be known as Lake View Estates, and developed by Amelia Risso, Joseph Dentoni and Marcelina Dentoni.

Charles Tijerina of Tiburon National Bank has applied for architectural supervision for a two-story bank building at 101 Tiburon Boulevard, Alto. This is Item 14.

Potluck Slated

The Center Senior Advisory Board will host a potluck luncheon for Marin County senior citizens next Thursday noon at the San Rafael Recreation Center, 37 Union Street.

Police Job Open In San Rafael

Friday, July 23, is the deadline to apply for a patrolman's job with the San Rafael Police Department.

Chief Charles J. Chiesa said examination for the job will be held on July 31. Salary ranges from $551 to $670 per month.

Tomorrow at 9 a.m., nine officers of the San Rafael Police Department will take oral interviews for two new jobs that have been approved by the San Rafael City Council. The jobs are for an investigator and a juvenile officer.

Police lieutenants from Berkeley, San Francisco and South San Francisco will comprise the oral board.

Vet Spurs Cincy Pennant Drive

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Put Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale together, and they barely come out ahead of Joe Nuxhall.

But Nuxhall has the Cincinnati Reds in first place in the National League, and the best Koufax and Drysdale can do for the Los Angeles Dodgers is second.

Nuxhall kept the Reds three percentage points ahead of the Dodgers last night, stopping Philadelphia 8-1 on eight hits. Drysdale, meanwhile, pitched a three-hitter as Los Angeles whipped the Chicago Cubs 5-0.

The triumph for Nuxhall was his fifth straight, all having come in Cincinnati's last eight victories, or since June 29. In the same period, Drysdale and Koufax, who own 29 triumphs between them overall, have combined for six of the Dodgers' eight victories.

The streak for the left-hander, who will be 37 in two weeks, started in a 7-5 decision over Pittsburgh, June 29.

Then, after pitching his first complete game of the season against Philadelphia July 4, he came back in relief against the Dodgers three days later and helped the Reds into first place. His fourth consecutive victory came in a start against Milwaukee July 10.

While going the distance against the Phillies for the second time in less than two weeks, Nuxhall, now 6-2 gave up only a home run to Dick Stuart in the fourth inning.

In other N. L. games, Milwaukee outlasted Pittsburgh 9-6 and St. Louis edged New York 6-5.

In the American League, Minnesota mauled Kansas City 11-3 before losing 3-2, Cleveland defeated Boston 6-3, Detroit nipped Baltimore 5-4, in 10 innings, Chicago downed Los Angeles 5-2 and New York edged Washington 2-1 in 12.

Nuxhall helped himself by doubling home a run and scoring in the sixth inning. Tommy Harper drove in two runs for the Reds while Vada Pinson and Leo Cardenas each collected three hits.

Drysdale brought his record to 14-8 while winning his third straight and recording his fourth shutout. He also singled across two runs in the fifth inning when the Dodgers scored all of their runs. Maury Wills singled in another run and stole his 56th base.

The Braves jumped to a 9-0 lead after four innings, but it took clutch relief pitching by Dan Osinski to snuff out a Pittsburgh rally in the sixth. Osinski struck out Andre Rodgers for the final out after the Pirates had erupted for five runs, two on Jim Pagliaroni's single.

Dick Groat's third hit, a seventh-inning double, drove in two runs and lifted St. Louis past New York. The hit climaxed a comeback that wiped out a 5-0 lead the Mets built mainly on two-run homers by Ed Kranepool and Charley Smith.

THE LEADER — Australia's Bruce Devlin shoots out from under tree as he took the second round lead in the Canadian Open golf tournament at Toronto yesterday. (UPI Telephoto)

RELUCTANT AUSSIE TOPS CANADA OPEN

TORONTO (UPI) — Reluctant Bruce Devlin didn't want to play in the Canadian Open at all and after suffering a first round shoulder injury he was almost sure he didn't want to go on.

The shoulder twinge cleared up overnight and today the blond, slender Devlin is the halfway leader in the $100,000 Canadian event and a strong threat to become the second straight Australian swinger to yesterday to go with an opening - round 68 for a 36-hole total of 134.

Defending champion Kel Nagle of Australia was six shots off the pace after rounds of 69-71 while still another Aussie, Bruce Crampton, was further back at 143.

Devlin, troubled so much by vericose veins that he wears elastic stockings, says his aches and pains weren't bothering him "quite so much" since taking over the lead.

But he was anything but a shoo-in. Burly Jack Nicklaus whose game is "beginning to come around," was just a shot behind. He too had a second round 66 — one of three registered yesterday. Dudley Wysong Jr. had the other to leave him at even par 140.

Nicklaus belittled his 66, saying "I didn't really think I played that well." He needed 32 putts to get around Mississaugua's postage stamp greens as compared with the 29 Devlin used.

Still very much in contention was first round leader Joe Campbell, the chunky, cigar-smoking Knoxville pro who "slipped" to an even 70 after his opening 66.

Just four shots off the pace were two veteran pros — Gene Littler (70-68) and Mason Rudolph (67-71)—and a pair of little known pros, former USC star Dave Stockton (68-70) and Jay Dolan III (69-69).

Bracketed with Arnold Palmer at 139 were local favorite George Knudson, Charlie Sifford, Billy Casper, Frank Whatton and Randy Glover.

Giants Resume Pennant Chase

Shaw Faces Astros; 13 Game S.F. Stand

The winds of Candlestick Park welcome back the San Francisco Giants tonight at the start of a 13-game home stand with Houston as the first opponent.

And, if those winds seem to be whispering, "Orlando," to Manager Herman Franks, that's because that's the word he'd most like to hear.

Slugging first baseman Orlando Cepeda, on the disabled list since June 7, has been working out at Candlestick.

"Cepeda can be the key to everything for us," says Franks. "And he's dying to play."

The decision will be made at a meeting between a doctor, Giants front-office men, Franks and Cepeda, who's counted on to make an honest appraisal of his knee troubles since a man must be cut from the roster if he's activated.

"I've felt all along that if we can stay within five games from the top without him, then we've got a great chance to win with him," said Franks.

The Giants repose now in third place, 3½ games behind league leaders Cincinnati and Los Angeles.

The Giants ventured to Tacoma, Wash., yesterday and beat their Pacific Coast League farm club 2-1 without Willie Mays and Willie McCovey.

Mays stayed in San Francisco to get treatments for his right hip, bruised last Saturday in a collision with Philadelphia catcher Pat Corrales and, Tuesday, with the Minnesota center field fence during the All Star game.

If the weather comes up cold tonight at Candlestick, then Mays could get an additional day of rest. Mays remains atop the National League with a .339 batting average.

Right-hander Bob Shaw (8-6) gets the call to face the Houston Astros' Dick Farrell (7-2).

The Giants have won 13 of their last 18 games at home and seven of nine from the Astros this season. On the last road trip, San Francisco won five of eleven.

Pitching was the good news Thursday at Tacoma, as loser Dick Estelle showed future big-league starting potential by allowing only three singles in eight innings work.

Winner Jack Sanford also impressed with five shutout innings in which he allowed only two singles with six strikeouts and no walks.

Jesus Alou and Jim Davenport got on via walks in the first inning. Alou stole third and scored an unearned run when Randy Hundley threw the ball away.

The eventual winning run scored in the fourth. Cap Peterson singled, Jack Hiatt walked and Peterson advanced to third on a ground out. He came across on a sacrifice fly.

SOCCER PRESIDENT—Frank Woods of 44 LaCrescenta Way, San Rafael, has been elected president of the U.S. Soccer Football Assn. Woods, a sergeant with the San Francisco police, has been active in soccer for more than 30 years. He is currently president of the California Soccer Football Assn. and had been secretary for many years with that state succer group.

Poor Planning Always Leaves Giants Short A Key Player

CONNOLLY

Somewhere along the line the Giants regularly fall short. They either over-rate themselves, or under-rate the opposition. Otherwise how can situations develop, year after year, where the S.F. team discovers it is shy one key player to keep up with the charge of the opposition?

The situation, as developing right now, might be excusable once in while but it shouldn't be a trade mark, as it seems to be with the Giants. You hear all sorts of stories about how sharp, and how clever owner Horace Stoneham is when it comes to swapping players. But like the guy from Missouri, "you gotta show me."

It is considered smart business to ship away a couple of high salaried athletes on the pretense of a "youth movement." But when you wind up with a kindergarten outfit, then something is out of kilter.

What is happening right now to the S.F. club, in the midst of a tough, tight fisted pennant race, is not all traceable to injuries. They hurt and hurt badly. But the penalty, in my judgment, belongs to a lack of proper planning.

MANAGER HERMAN Franks is doing a great job in trying to keep from going insane over his many problems. He fumes and frets, admits he lacks a starting pitcher. If you were to ask him "who's to blame?" he'd gallantly admit it was his fault.

But it isn't his fault. There is a bright young man from Dartmouth, Chub Feeney, vice president and a nephew of H. Stoneham, who should step up and shoulder some of the uncertainty for the Giant ball club. Year after year Chubby, a loveable personality, will say he has measured the club, man and for man, and finds it equal to the opposition. But year after year, he falls short in his yardstick of his own club or that of other teams.

STONEHAM WAXES hot or cold, as the mood strikes him. But he is loyal to his help, and once he accepts their judgment, he strings along come hell and high water. He never alibis. It is Stoneham's dough that is being kicked around without producing in proportion to the outlay. When a general manager and a field manager can "sell" their own judgment short to the head man, then I say it is time to take inventory.

WHY THE Giants should be allowed to "flounder" each year always shy of one key player, is chargeable to management. Last year it was pitcher Jack Sanford through arm trouble. Juan Marichal didn't help either by getting hurt in the waning days of the season and really crippling whatever chance the S.F. club had of copping the pennant.

This year it is the fault of Orlando Cepeda, injured first sacker. He left the club for "dead" even before the season opened. Next year the same old pattern could again develop.

It may be that the Giants are playing impossible odds of trying to develop young ball players and win the championship all at the same time. Lightning may strike once in awhile but not often enough to make it worth while.

The Dodgers lost Tommy Davis shortly after the 1965 season and his loss is commensurate with the Giants' loss of Cepeda. But the Dodgers kept on going at top speed and it is just short of a miracle how they've done it. No one can say they are where they are because of bad planning. That's for sure.

FOR THE last five years the Giants' incubator (farm system) has laid a lot of eggs. The wonder of it all is how much more money has to be washed away until the club becomes a solid rather than a hit and miss outfit, always banking on the miracle to tide it over.

Payoff Talk In Brown's Jury Trial

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Under cross-examination for the third day, an 18-year-old girl denied today that she discussed with a 16-year-old girl friend the possibility of a payoff from Cleveland Browns fullback Jim Brown.

Brenda Ayres, who has accused Brown of assault and battery, testified she never told Paula White in a telephone conversation: "He'll drop it and have to pay a whole lot of money."

Miss Ayres also denied, on questioning by Brown's attorney, Norman F. Minor, that she told Paula "I feel we're going to lose this case, but mother doesn't think so."

The alleged telephone conversation took place the night of June 21 after Miss Ayres had signed complaints against Brown.

Under persistent questioning by Minor, Miss Ayres said "I did not talk to Paula on this date (June 21)."

Earlier in the jury trial which opened Monday, it was brought out that Miss Ayres had met Brown, 29, who is married and father of three, through Miss White.

Minor asked Miss Ayres whether a $60 gift she said Brown gave her was in answer for her request for money to visit a sick uncle in Dayton, Ohio. She admitted she told Brown her uncle was sick, but denied asking him for money.

WEARY MARIN SAILORS FINALLY REACH GOAL

It was a tired little Novato group that completed its non-stop power cruiser voyage from San Rafael to San Diego this morning.

Skipper Fred Morrill and his father-son crew of Maurie and Bruce Cisco completed their run against time today at 9 a.m., a trip that took them slightly more than 38 hours. They had hoped to cover the 360-mile course in less than 24 hours.

"They were tired but happy," reported Morrill's wife this morning.

The trio had taken 162 gallons of gasoline aboard the 30-foot Columbia "Slo 'n Easy," but because of the length of time for the trip, it wasn't enough.

When they got as far as Santa Barbara they had only two quarts left, so had to stop there to pick up more fuel.

Mrs. Morrill said her husband told her via telephone they didn't see land from the time they passed under the Golden Gate Bridge, about 7 p.m. Wednesday, until 2 p.m. yesterday because of such poor visibility.

The bad visibility, combined with rough water conditions, forced the sailors to navigate at speeds much under their planned 25 to 30 knots.

Marin Team Gains In Cal Finals

Sohner Tree Service softballers erupted for eight runs in the first four innings last night to clobber Windsor Merchants, 9-0, in the district finals of the California State Softball Tournament in Santa Rosa.

The victory keeps Sohner in the winners' bracket of the double elimination tourney and pits the Treemen against Lucky 7 Golf at 8:45 Sunday night.

Ron Jerome with three hits including a two-run homer paced the Marin team. Ed Schulze and John Brookman each had a pair of hits.

Singles by Schulze and Jerome and Jess Munyon's triple highlighted Sohner's first inning three-run outburst.

Jerome's homer accounted for two more tallies in the second and Bill Haymart's triple was the key blow in a three run fourth inning rally.

Hamilton Field, one of Marin's other two entries, must win against Windsor tonight to stay in the tournament.

REDSKINS BOAST MOST EXPERIENCED NFL TEAM

NEW YORK (AP)—The Washington Redskins are the most experienced team in the National Football League with an average of 5.2 years service among their veterans, an NFL survey showed today.

Minnesota remains the least experienced with a 3.2 year average in a league where the average veteran is 26.9 years old with 4.4 years of experience. The San Francisco 49ers average 26.6 years of age with 4.2 years experience.

The NFL said 580 veteran players will be challenged by 375 rookies in the training season.

A flurry of retirements by overage veterans has cut a full year off the New York Giants' club average which now is down to 4.4 years of experience.

Special Hearing Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — A war which even a general couldn't solve is now headed for a Senate hearing room.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., said yesterday his Senate Commerce Committee plans a look into the long-standing jurisdictional dispute between the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

Magnuson vowed to take "whatever action is necessary to prevent a strangling of athletic freedom in our nation."

The late Gen. Douglas MacArthur once served as a middleman between the two athletic groups. He brought peace, but it was only temporary.

Magnuson's decision to conduct hearings — he set no date — on the matter brought favorable reaction from spokesmen for both organizations.

In Denver, Clifford Buck, president of the AAU, said he welcomed the hearing.

Said Buck: "The AAU's position is clear. If we are wrong, and we don't think we are wrong, then we certainly want to know it."

In Kansas City, Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, said: "The NCAA and the many organizations associated with us in the Federation movement have been on record for some time in favor of a thoroughgoing investigation by an impartial agency."

Magnuson said in his speech: "This dispute has gone on long enough. It is now the duty of the Senate to speak out for those who have no voice."

His reference was to college athletes who, he said, face loss of athletic scholarships for daring to compete in AAU-sponsored events to select track and field teams for international competition.

He cited specifically the case of distance runner Gerry Lindgren of Washington State University. Lindgren ignored an NCAA ban to compete in an AAU meet where he won a spot on a U.S. team which is to meet Russian athletes.

"Though Gerry's fate is still undecided," Magnuson said, "we must ask ourselves why this 18-year-old boy has become a pawn and innocent victim in this dispute.

"These young men and women must not be made to choose between an education and representing our country. The cost is too great to them, and to our country."

Transpac Vet 11th To Reach Honolulu

HONOLULU (AP) — The 78-foot schooner Queen Mab last night became the 11th boat to cross the Diamond Head finish line in the 1965 Transpacific race from Los Angeles to Honolulu.

The Queen Mab, with the Novia Del Mar which arrived the previous evening, is one of the veterans of Transpac races. The schooner completed her seventh Transpacific crossing in the race when she reached Diamond Head light.

With an elapsed time of 11 days 10 hours 18 minutes 13 secnds and a corrected time of 10 days 21 hours 16 minutes and 33 seconds, however, the vessel is nowhere in contention.

Race officials said the schooner, owned and skippered by Larry Pringle and flying the flag of the California Yacht Club, was 11th to finish and 11th in her class of 13 when handicaps were last figured.

About 90 minutes behind the Queen Mab was the 50-foot sloop Westward, owned and skippered by Willard Bell of the Los Angeles Y. C.

The remainder of the 55 yachts which set out from Los Angeles will continue to cross the finish line through the weekend, race officials said.

But since the Ticonderoga set a new record earlier this week with a first to finish time of 9 days, 13 hours, 51 minutes and 2 seconds, everything here is more-or-less an anticlimax until the handicapped positions are figured out.

Because of its handicap, the Kialoa II is listed first in the fleet handicap division and is rated the one to beat for the overall title.

REBELLION SHAKES UP U.S. DAVIS CUP SQUAD

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — George MacCall's tough disciplinarian role as non-playing captain of the U.S. Davis Cup squad made the National Clay Courts Tournament the backdrop today for a rebellion by America's premier tennis family.

MacCall, who earlier this year benched the nation's top ranked player, Dennis Ralston, yesterday ruled potential No. 2 Davis Cupper, 18-year-old Cliff Richey, out of the pending American zone showdown with Mexico.

But he ran into an impasse when he suggested that Cliff's father, George Richey, a Dallas teaching tennis pro, fade into the background during preparation for the Cup tangle with Mexico at Dallas, beginning July 31.

The whole Richey family, including Cliff's sister, Nancy, 22, nationally top-ranked women's player as well as his parents, said in effect that papa knows best and should stick to his close supervision of the brilliant young player.

Even while MacCall was scratching Richey from his Davis Cup list, Nancy was named to the Wightman Cup squad for the fourth time.

Nancy is defending champion in the women's phase of the Clay Courts meet which ends Sunday. Cliff hopes to join his sister in a family sweep to match their title triumphs in the Western Open at Milwaukee last weekend.

The incident involved the older Richey's concern over a drug administered to the son as the result of a thumb injury.

MacCall was irked by Cliff's communicating with his father. Under no circumstances, according to MacCall, was any potential member of the Davis Cup team to communicate with anybody.

MacCall charged that the father, George, who also is the boy's coach, "interfered with my handling of the situation, therefore, making it an impossible situation."

Young Richey declared today that he would never play for MacCall. He said:

"As far as I'm concerned, I don't want to play on the Davis Cup team if MacCall has anything to do with it. I've made up my mind to this. I can't play for somebody who refuses to think of a player's personal health.

"In my case, drugs used to heal my injury were untested and had such a bad odor and taste, they made me sick.

"That is why I got in touch with dad. He came to Paris to see what was wrong. This made MacCall quite angry."

The older Richey said he has no hard feelings toward MacCall, and insisted that "the decision not to play on the Cup team was Cliff's."

Nothing, however, is going to keep young Richey from trying to win the Clay Court title. He meets rugged Ron Holmberg today in quarter-final play.

Richey, who beat Ralston last week for the Western Open crown said:

"I want to be No. 1 in the country if not the world. Just because I'm not going to play for the Davis Cup squad doesn't mean I'm through with tennis. On the contrary. I'm going to work even harder now."

George Richey commented:

"I suppose I could be accused of trying to push my boy. But, he's his own boss. He tells me how hard he wants to be pushed. "Sure, I want him to do his best. But, I don't think I can be accused of punishing my son just to satisfy my desire to see him be the best."

MacCall said the incident involved the question of "who was going to run the show — Cliff's father or myself? I was at the point of either letting Cliff's father run the team, or else put my foot down.

"I regret this had to happen, but discipline is the most important thing."

Also playing a women's quarter-final match will be Stephanie DeFina of Hollywood, Fla., and Nancy Reed of Gaithersburg, Md.

S.F. Student Reaches Publinx Semi-Finals

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The "kids" had the 40th National Public Links Golf Tournament all to themselves today for the grinding 36-hole semifinal over North Park golf course's 6,781 yards of man-killing hills.

Pairings for the two matches had Leo Zampedro, 24-year-old Warren, Ohio, fireman, meeting Al Bailey, 19-year-old State College of Iowa student, and Arne Dokka, 21-year-old Far West intercollegiate champ, playing Jim Schroder, 21-year-old San Francisco marketing student who is making his first appearance in a national tournament.

Winners of today's matches will meet in a 36-hole finale Saturday for the James D. Standish Cup and exemption from qualifying for the National Amateur later this summer.

Schroder, whose father is the San Francisco city accountant, disposed of Rafus Grier of Dayton, Ohio, 5 and 4. He had eliminated defending champ Billy McDonald of Topeka, Kan., 2 and 1 in the third round.

Raiders Work With 3 Quarterbacks; 4th Due

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP)—Three quarterbacks were ready to start their second full day of drills today in the training camp of the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League and a fourth was due to arrive.

Regulars Tom Flores and Cotton Davidson, plus Lee Grosscup of the 1964 practice squad, were on the scene yesterday throwing to the backs and ends among the 39 other players in camp.

Twenty-two veterans were expected to arrive Sunday. In camp now are 22 rookies, the three quarterbacks and a group of veterans of one or two seasons and players picked up in trades and on waivers.

No Reduction In Rose Bowl Ducats

That is the word from Tom Hamilton, executive director of the Athletic Association of Western Universities.

Hamilton said the price has been set, the tickets printed and there would be no reduction. He cited the increase in ticket prices at several other top games, such as the Army-Navy game and the National Football League's Pro-Bowl, and said Rose Bowl prices had not gone up accordingly.

STEVENS

In days to come, when a bunch of the boys are whooping it up and telling tall tales of the monstrous fish caught, Eddie Lucia will likely relate the tussle he had with a black bass. Those who doubt Eddie's story may be shown a snapshot of said lunker or, better still, he will invite all doubters of his claim of having caught a large mouth blackie that measured 21 inches in length and sported a girth of 17¼ inches and weighed 11 pounds, 9 ounces, to visit his home and see the fish itself nicely mounted.

Joe Wun, who measured and weighed the fish for Lucia, wondered if the fish could by chance be a record.

Sorry, Joe and Eddie, this black bass may be a record for California, but won't rate in the world record books. So far as is known the black bass caught by George W. Perry in Montgomery Lake, Georgia, June 2, 1932 and weighing 22 pounds, 4 ounces, heads the list. But heaps of congratulations to Eddie Lucia just the same.

JOE WUN of Sportsmen's Center called me to tell of the luck had by John Theno on a recent trip to Yosemite after trout. John pulled the blank in and around the park, but on the way out spotted a small lake that beckoned to him. Result? Seven nice fat rainbows ranging from 13 inches to 16 inches.

GOOD NEWS for the salmon hopefuls: Fish started hitting off Point Reyes on Tuesday. Tony Caruso reported the boat, Marion, with eight limits of nice fish, and the Hurricane, who had been working near the Islands drove to the Point Reyes area, but apparently arrived too late to join the fun. Had to be satisfied with 10 salmon. The run off Point Reyes was still going strong on Wednesday.

THERE IS a persistent rumor that late evening trolling in the upper San Pablo Bay (at or near the Union Oil Wharf) has come to sudden life. I was unable to verify the report, so suggest you call Dowrelio's Crockett Harbor or the Rodeo Marina.

THE FOLLOWING waters in the central coastal area were scheduled for restocking of catchable-size trout this week — by counties — LAKE — Upper Blue Lake; MARIN — Bon Tempe Reservoir; MONTEREY —Big Sur River, Los Padres Reservoir, Carmel River; SAN FRANCISCO — South Lake Merced; SAN LUIS OBISPO — Lower Nacimiento River; SAN MATEO — Pescadero Creek; SANTA CRUZ — San Lorenzo River.

All plantings in all waters are subject to change caused by weather and water conditions.

AAU Swim Meet At Kentfield

Marin Pirates Swim Club will host the Seven Counties League championship swim meet this weekend at the College of Marin pool in Kentfield.

The two-day meet is sanctioned by the Pacific Assn. of the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU). Saturday's action starts at 9 a.m. and Sunday's events at 9:30 a.m. There will be a total of 68 events.

Marin County's representatives in the league are the Pirates of San Anselmo. Other league members are the Arden Hills Swim Team, Modesto Swim and Racquet Club, Del Norte Swim Team, Pleasant Hills Swim Club, Beverly Swim and Racquet Club and the Santa Rosa Neptunes.

FAVORED TEAM

Arden Hills of Sacramento, the team that won 24 first places at the Junior Olympics finals in Sacramento last month, has the favorites role in this weekend's meet. A member of that team is Susan Pederson, first girl in the world to break a minute in the 10 and under age group 100-yard freestyle event.

Mrs. Beth Kaufman of San Anselmo, originator of age group swimming in the United States, is president of the Seven Counties Swim League. The meet, expected to draw 400 youngsters, is free of charge.

THE HOLIDAY IS OVER

Native Diver Seeks Horse Of Year Title

INGLEWOOD (AP) — The bid by Native Diver for Horse of the Meeting honors will be challenged by seven rivals when they race in the $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup Handicap tomorrow.

The 6-year-old dark brown gelding, the most successful stakes runner in California turf history, will probably be the favorite in the 1¼ rush for the $100,000-net prize.

Conquerer of much the same opposition in the $50,000-added American Handicap July 5, Native Diver will carry high weight of 124 pounds. Jerry Lambert, his regular rider, will be aboard.

Hill Rise, 121; Tronado, 117, and Colorado King, 116, pose the major threats to the front-running Native Diver, who has captured 21 added-money races in a career devoted exclusively to California tracks.

Others entered were lightweighted Ramant, Babington and the entry of Arlo and Gauger.

Native Diver won the Los Angeles Handicap early in the meeting and, after skipping the Inglewood Handicap because of a minor ailment, came back to capture the July 5 feature by two lengths over the Argentine import, Tronado.

Native Diver is owned by Mr. and Mrs. L.K. Shapiro of Beverly Hills, Calif.

The El Peco Ranch's Hill Rise will be shooting for the second of California's two $100,000-added specials for older horses. Bred by Owner George Pope, Hill Rise won the Santa Anita Handicap last spring.

Hill Rise was third in the American Handicap and second to Tronado in the Inglewood. Jockey Manuel Ycaza was booked to fly from New York to ride the California 4-year-old.

Tronado, a 5-year-old, has been a consistent contender all season. Joe Baze will be the pilot.

South Africa's gift to the American scene, now owned by a group headed by Lawrence Pollock of Dallas, Tex., Colorado King won the Gold Cup last year.

He followed that victory with another in the $75,000 - added Sunset Handicap 10 days later. But Colorado, beset by leg miseries, has not won a race since.

Colorado King finished a strong third against less than impressive opposition in his last outing. But he has been sharp in workouts the last week.

Walkers Race Clock In Marin Tomorrow

It will be the first Marin Athletic Club sponsored walking race, which has drawn "walkers" from Oregon to San Diego. The men will be competing on a nine-mile course from the Tiburon firehouse up Paradise Drive to Trestle Glen, and then back to the firehouse on the same route.

It starts tomorrow morning at 9:30.

Pelicans Only Unbeaten Team In Rec Cage Loop

The Pelicans remained the only undefeated team in the Drake Summer Basketball high school division when they turned back the Pirates 44-30 to feature this week's action in the program.

Hal Orr led the Pelicans to their fourth straight triumph when he scored 16 points. Chet Carlisle and Karl Stein each scored 10 for the losers.

The Tigers edged the Trojans 46-43, with Joel Black meshing 14 points for the Tigers and Brian Perron 15 for the Trojans. The Wolves chewed up the Bulldogs, 65-42. Frank Regganito hit 20 points for the Wolves and Joe Cunningham 13 for the Bulldogs.

In a real tight one, the Parrots handed Schafer's Ice Cream its first loss, 45-44. Dave Kline scored 10 for the winners but was outdone by Shafer's cager Russ Smith with 19 points.

Wildcats won by forfeit over the Indians.

MORE ON BULLPEN

The gossip wherever big league scouts gather is always favorable to the Giants, talent-wise. They are supposed to have more "potential stars" than any of the other clubs. Yet when you check and double check it's fellows like Hal Lanier that come up. The kid is a great fielder and may become a great hitter but they picked him too soon, because of dire necessity.

THE GIANTS have had good wingmen in the infield like Cepeda and Davenport and Hart but they seem to hit a real snag around shortstop and second base. If they overcome it, they'll have to let their prospects ripen before sending boys on a man's journey.

Maybe all my so-called Giant confusion can be wasted if Cepeda makes it. But if he doesn't then our boy scout movement with rookies has got to be tabbed a colossal flop.

But here tonight are the Houston Astros and they might be the spring board from which the Giants can steam up a winning streak and then they can tar and feather "The Bullpen."

Three Games On Tap For Legion '9'

San Rafael coach Don Lucas reported that the Lafayette coach told him the game couldn't be played in Moraga because some members of the San Francisco 49ers were already working out there.

San Rafael has three games ahead of it for this weekend. Tomorrow it's Fairfield at Albert Park in San Rafael at 8 p.m. and Sunday it's Mare Island at Wilson Park in Vallejo, 1:30 p.m., two league games, then Sunday night at 7:30 it's Alameda in a practice game at Albert Field.

Scheduled to start on the mound for San Rafael in those games are Ben Burch, Bill Lee and Mike Ainslie, in that order.

Bolinas-Stinson Trustee Vacancy Still Not Filled

Three persons were interviewed Wednesday night by Bolinas-Stinson Beach School District trustees to fill the position left vacant on the board by Irving E. Levine, who has moved to Belvedere.

Interviewed were Patricia Vitelli and Edith Sarraille of Bolinas and Roberta Shockey of Stinson Beach. Candidate John Barrow of Bolinas has written to the board applying for the position but was not present.

Trustees will interview applicants again July 27 at 8 p.m. at Bolinas School, reported Mrs. Alyce Thompson, clerk.

Mrs. Thompson was elected chairman of the board; Mrs. Mildred Haraldsen, clerk, and Arthur E. Carpenter, representative on the County Committee on School District Organization.

Aug. 4 at 8 p.m. was set for a public hearing on the 1966 budget at Bolinas School. Budget figure of $168,935 was announced last night but no tax rate was reached.

The board received a letter from West Marin School District trustees saying that before a meeting is arranged between the two boards, West Marin trustees would like to know what mutual interests would be discussed at it. The suggestion for the meeting came from Bolinas-Stinson trustees. No further action was taken on this subject, Mrs. Thompson said.

Trustees authorized spending $700 for lockers and toilets for the kindergarten to be housed in a building behind Bolinas School. They also granted a leave of absence next April to Mrs. Erika Zettl, Bolinas school teacher, who plans to accompany her husband to Europe on a sabbatical leave, returning in September.

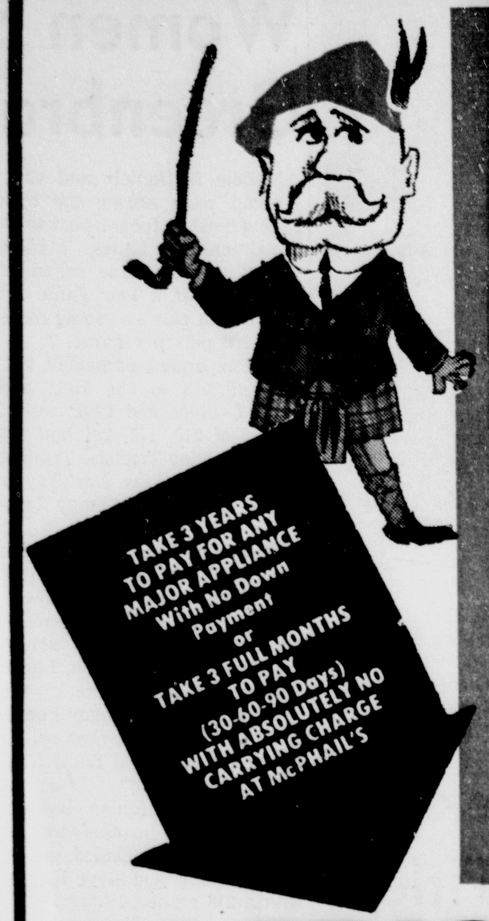

Vandals Break School Windows

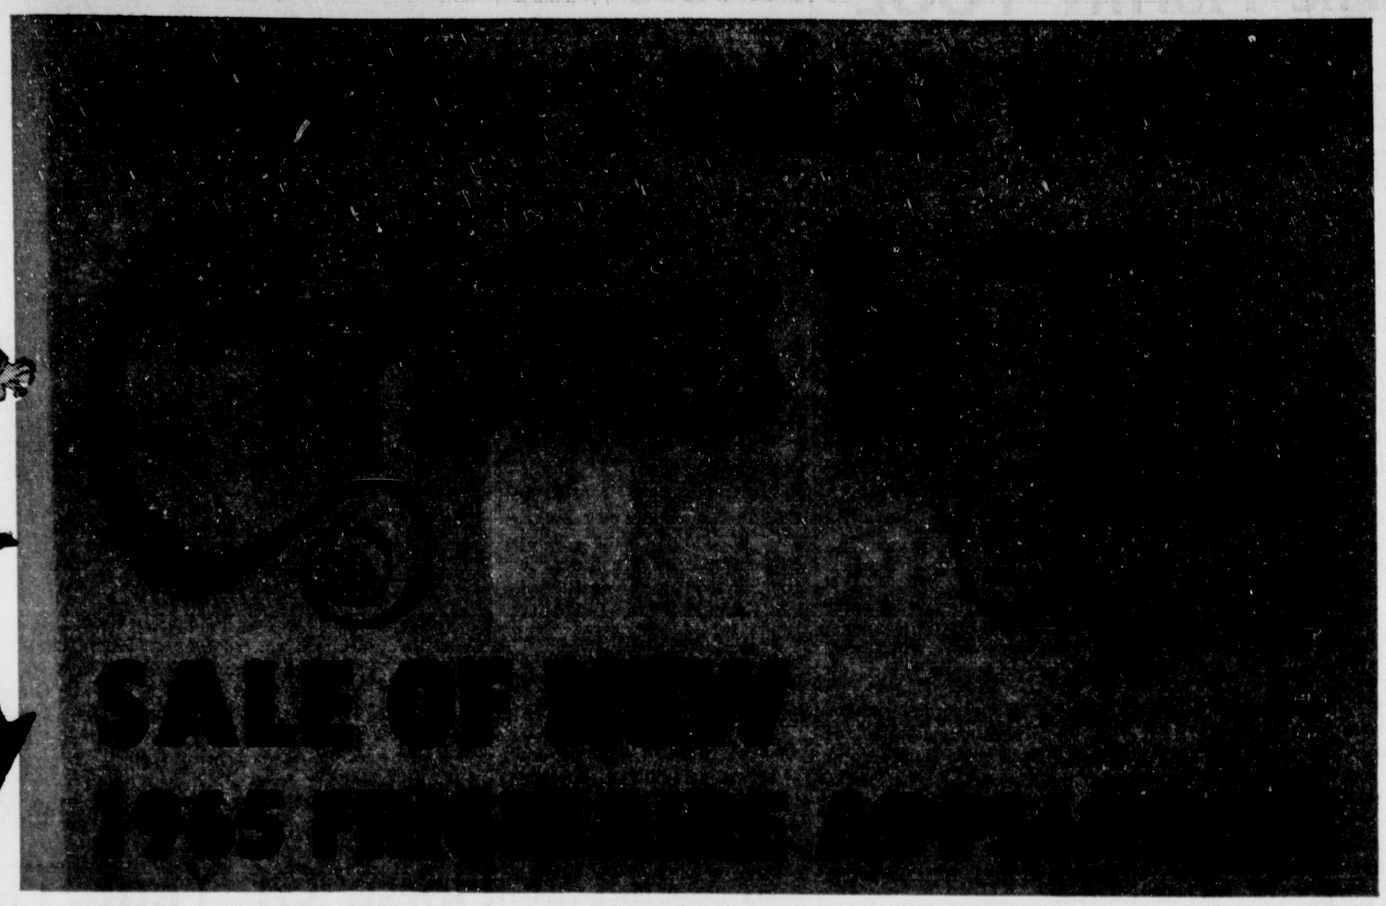

Vandals knocked out lights and windows at Sun Valley School in San Rafael, causing $184 in damages, playground leader Willard A. Coursey reported to police Tuesday.

He said the damage had been done sometime during the past two weeks.

Outside lights were broken on the east end of the building, putty dug out of windows on the north side of the building, and three windows broken.

Paper consumption in Great Britain in 1964 was 243 pounds per capita as compared with 475 pounds in the United States.

Parties And Travels On Summer Lists

By MOLLY MARIN

The activities for the 20 Marin debutantes are beginning to crowd the summer party calendar and will continue to do so for the next seven weeks, before the girls enter their various colleges and universities in September. Tomorrow lunch and swimming is in the offing for the girls and their escorts, with the gathering at the home of Mrs. Andrew Stockton in Kentfield. Her deb daughter Andrea is the honoree. And on Sunday it will be a supper in honor of Gail Noah of Belvedere hosted by the Edwin Weeds at their Belvedere home.

Another Belvedere deb, Madalyn Simi, is one of 30 young Marin artists whose work will be shown nationally in a traveling exhibit under the auspices of the American Red Cross. . . .

MRS. HERBERT CHAMBERLAIN of Ross and Mrs. George A. Banker of Kentfield returned from a two weeks' trip to Canada and the northwest. While in Seattle, Mrs. Chamberlain talked with Mrs. Catherine Mears, a former resident of Ross and an old friend. The travelers especially enjoyed the good weather in all points including Jackson Lake, Yellowstone Park, Calgary, Banff, Lake Louise and Vancouver.

DR. AND MRS. JOHN OSBORN of the Belvedere Lagoon and their children, Nanny, Mimi, Cindy, Ollie and Joe, recently returned from spending two weeks in Hawaii. On Oahu surfing was the attraction for Ollie who is a champion at the sport. The Osborns spent most of their time on the island of Maui.

RECENT VISITORS to Scotland were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Surratt of Fairfax, who drove to Chicago where they visited with Mr. Surratt's relatives. They then flew to Scotland where they spent 21 days visiting with Mrs. Surrat's nephews and nieces in Edinburgh. On the return trip, the Surrats drove through Wisconsin, Minnesota and Yellowstone Park.

MR. AND MRS. WESLEY COSTELLO of San Rafael will leave Tuesday for the Far East on a two and one-half month holiday. They will board the freighter "Astrid Bakke," a Norwegian ship, to sail to Hong Kong where they will spend several days, and go on to Manila and Singapore. There they will leave the ship and fly to Bangkok and then on to Macao. From Macao they will return to Hong Kong for several more days. They will rejoin the ship and sail to Yokahama and then to Hawaii, where they will stay for two weeks. The Costellos plan to visit Oahu, Molokai, Maui and Kauai.

MR. AND MRS. FINN DALE came home to San Rafael on Friday after spending six weeks visiting friends and relatives in Norway. The Dales flew to Copenhagen, then traveled by boat from Bergen to Hammerfest, the world's most northern city.

MR. AND MRS. FRED DUPUIS of Hill Haven, Tiburon, and their young son, Fred, have moved into their new home on the West Shore in Belvedere. The Dupuises have two daughters, Mrs. Timothy Phelps of Greenbrae and Mrs. Grainger Hunt of Alpine, Tex. Mrs. Dupuis will leave for Texas in September, when Mrs. Hunt is expecting a second child. The Hunts have a year old son, Philo Hunt.

THE ARTHUR V. FAYS of San Rafael have been spending a few days at Del Monte Lodge in Pebble Beach.

DOUBLE EXPOSURE

The Plunging Sideline New Sensation Shown By Galanos

NEW YORK (UPI) — You've heard of plunging necklines and backlines?

Hollywood designer James Galanos, in his new fall and winter collection, showed the double exposure dress in New York today. It exposed flesh from armpit to waistline.

Galanos leaned to the bare look many other ways, pushing the uncovered shoulder and back look for evening, too. One black long dress had a triangle-shaped peek-a-boo cutout under the bosom.

FOR THE woman dressed fit to kill, the trend-setting designer introduced helmets made of metallic lace. One was made completely of feathers and stretched halfway to the waist fore and aft.

This apt disguise for bird watchers or women who want to prove they're fine feather friends was shown over a long black wool dress cut like a column.

THE AWARD-winning designer favored wool and chiffon for evening. The predominent silhouette was slim and slinky. The chiffon column featured contrasting colors—purple with red, orange with green.

The Galanos suits also were slim of line and had raised waists. There were just a few full-skirted suits, showing that this designer is bucking the full-skirted trend started by other leading fashion creators.

For at home, the California designed offered a silvery brown quilted pants suit with a chanel cut jacket.

MANY OF his evening clothes had sleeves that were cut along the lines of harem pants—lots of blouse to them, full at the ends and cinched with tiny cuffbands.

For very formal occasions, Galanos introduced a batch of long gowns, slim cut, and paved with sparkling beads.

Teen-Agers Contributors To Success Of Program

A pilot program which affords separate vacations for parents and handicapped children, which is the first residential summer program for mentally retarded in Marin, is meeting with success.

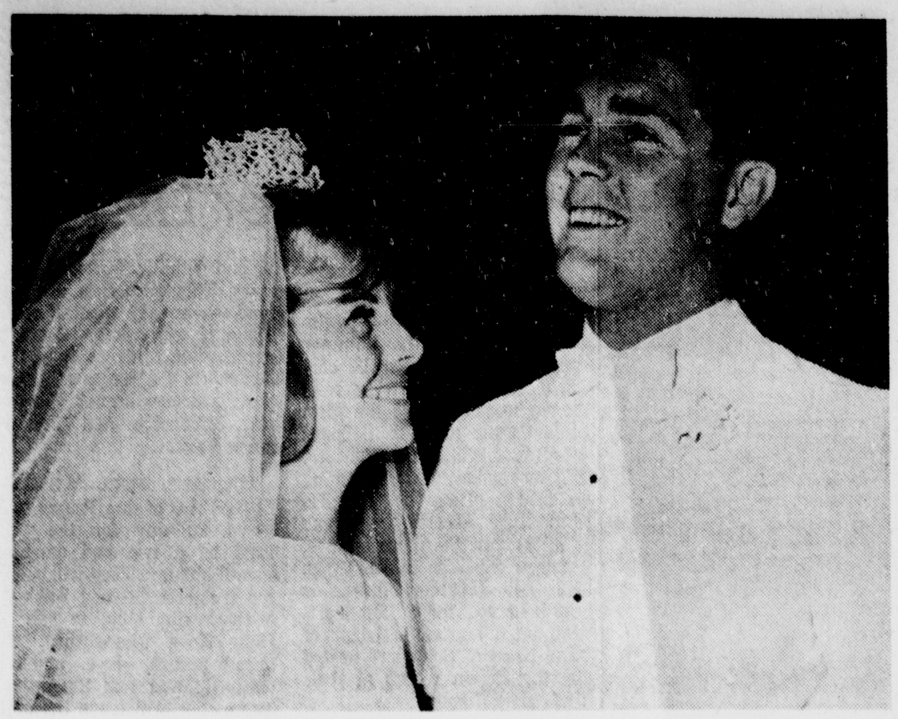

The program, which has resulted in Camp Lagunitas in Lagunitas, combines a special education summer school program, day camp activities and resident care for children between 5 and 15 years of age.

Active participants in the Camp Lagunitas project in addition to the Marin Aid to Retarded Children's staff are 50 Red Cross teen-age volunteers who act as water safety and recreation aids as well as MARC's volunteers teen-age corps from the Volunteer Bureau of Marin. Other participants are Red Cross adult water safety instructors and members of the Catholic Social Service who have provided transportation.

House parents are Lou Yetter, director of the MARC-Marin Work Training Center; Mel Boyce, Susan Beazeley, Erica Munster, occupational therapist, and Sally Blackburn, Olga Barbano, Esther Muelrath, David Johnson, Donald Killgore, Mrs. Bea Duke, Ike Sofaer, Louise Dell 'Era, Maureen Perkins and Don Caseldine, who is in charge of menu planning and meal preparation.

The program was sparked by proceeds from the first annual Marin Invitational Tournament of Stars held last year.

Bananas And Curry

Delicious to serve with chicken curry: bananas skillet-heated in butter and sprinkled with flaked coconut. If you serve this combination, omit the coconut from the tray of other condiments that are usually served as a curry accompaniment.

Allow Repairman To Clean Inside Television Set

One housecleaning chore women often feel they have neglected is cleaning the interior of the television set. Actually this is a job for the repairman when he checks the tubes, not a job for the housewife.

The static charges, not necessarily the heat nor the housekeeping, tends to build up dust in the set.

Unplugging the set does not completely remove the hazard. Static charges built up in the set may discharge to the tool handled by the person probing in the set. While the current emitted from such a discharge may not be harmful to a person, the high voltage would scare the unsuspecting person, causing them to do other damage in the set. The shock might even be dangerous to a defective heart because of the surprise value. Furthermore, a tube could be broken from a relatively light tap.

Marin Women

Theater And Education Are Interests Of New Officer

Theater, public education and swimming are special interests of Mrs. H. James Compton, new president of the League of Women Voters of Central Marin. Frances Compton, who has held membership in the group for six years, also served as vice president for program and study group chairman during that time.

Members of the Central Marin League wrote the argument for the recently voted Hall of Justice bonds at the request of the Board of Supervisors following the league's research on the facts for the bond issue. They also registered voters at a booth during the Marin Art and Garden Fair this past week.

Current club projects include studies of Marin County government and election procedures and of legislative apportionment, water pollution and bay fill. The League proposes to serve as watchdog on government for the concerned voter and to activate citizens as voters and provide understandable information on ballot measures.

Mrs. Compton just completed a two-year term as president of the Ross Valley Parent-Teacher Assn. Council and is presently scholarship chairman of that group. She holds membership in the American Assn. of University Women, Marin Scholarship Assn. and is school board representative for Redwood High School P-TA.

The Comptons, who have resided in Marin since 1948, are the parents of Richard, 15 and John, 16. Frances Compton was graduated from University of California with a bachelor's degree in economics and political science and University of Southern California with a graduate certificate in social work. She has also done graduate work at University of Chicago in administration.

Other new officers are Mesdames James Staley, first vice president; Robert Gicker, second vice president; M. W. Milot, secretary; and Russel Wilson, treasurer.

Automatic Timer Fools Burglars

Burglary is a menace to an empty home, whether you're going away for an evening, weekend, or vacation trip. One of the best weapons at your disposal to discourage the potential burglar is a small timing device that turns lights on and off automatically.

This automatic light timer does its work silently and efficiently, never needs resetting. Not much larger than a typical alarm clock, it can be attached to one or more lamps, and once set, will automatically turn the lights on at dusk and off at your normal retiring time.

JUST A MINUTE, MEN

Career Girls May Do Better Not To Carry A Big Stick

And watch your language, lady, there may be gentlemen present.

She is president of the Advertising Women of New York and a vice president and creative director of the New York firm of Calkins and Holden.

She presented a code of ethics for the woman who wants to succeed and called it "Nine Commandments for Women in Business," as follows:

FIRST: Thou shall try harder; thou need not be No. 2.

It is the first order of business to prove to the men that we mean business about our careers.

SECOND: Thou shall know when to zip thy ruby lips and let the men do the talking. The longer we hold out on the men, the harder they'll listen when we do break down and give them the inside, straight picture.

THIRD: Thou shall not attempt to hide behind thine own petticoat. Petticoats don't hide nearly so much as they used to. Nowadays they're apt to reveal rather more than they conceal.

FOURTH: Thou shall speak softly and carry no stick, save lipstick. All of us have known the female whose voice, under stress, goes up so many decibels that it could set fire to the fur on a rat's back.

FIFTH: Thou shall serve thy lady boss as graciously as thou serve any man.

How can we expect to survive as lady bosses ourselves if we give the girls above us a hard way to go—and keep insisting that we'd rather work men.

SIXTH: When success cometh thou shall not be too big for thy bustle. A man grown too great for his own raiment is hard enough to take, but a woman who is too big for her own bustle is impossible.

SEVENTH: Thou shall watch thy language; there may be gentlemen present. A lot of our current smart talk drifted up to a polite society from the dock walloper, but when the girls start bandying it about it's particularly unsmart.

NINTH: Thou shall save thy sex appeal for after 5. Sex around the office is like alcohol on the highway.

Fashion Editor Makes Scene Hatless At Millinery Show

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEARLY A THOUSAND hat makers of America and their friends were at the Astor. All but the males and one female—me—had hats. And what hats—flowers, feathers and fluff. The man next to me was a hat seller from Harrisburg, Pa. "You're not a traitor," he said, looking at my naked head.

"Judging from what I see, it's better not to wear a hat to an affair like this, rather than slap any old thing on your head just because you feel you must wear a hat," he added.

MEANWHILE, the commentator for the fashion show shouted from the stage—"This year, as never before a hat completes the look."

I was the tallest at my table. Nevertheless, I sat straight and let my naked head be seen, showing all around that my look wasn't completed.

Meanwhile down the runway came the best of show from the milliner's workrooms of Hatsville, U.S.A.

SAMPLES:

—The George Washington Hat. From the deft hands of Sally Victor. This was a qua cornered affair, piped in white and on a dark background.

—The Convertible hat. It started out as a turban. With the slip of a zip it turned into a hood, looking then like a frontier-woman's bonnet, tied under the chin.

—The Go As You Aren't hat. This was a helmet affair that came down over the eyes, visor like, as in knightsville of old.

—The Astro Helmet hat. This clamped over the ears like the radio operator's head set.

THE HAT SHOW was a highlight of 12 days of fashion sponsored by the New York couture group and the American designer showings for the nation's fashion press corps. The fashion marathon ends tomorrow.

Today is Friday, July 16, the 197th day of 1965 with 168 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter; the morning stars are Saturn and Jupiter; the evening stars are Venus and Mars.

Mary Baker Eddy, the founder of the Cristian Science Church, was born on this day in 1821.

On this day in history:

In 1862, David Farragut became the first U.S. admiral as Congress passed an act conferring the rank of rear admiral upon him.

In 1945, at 5:30 a.m. (EDT) the first experimental test of an atomic bomb took place in New Mexico.

In 1964, Sen Barry M. Goldwater, R-Ariz., accepted the Republican presidential nomination. The most-quoted line from that speech was "Extremism in the defense of liberty is no vice — moderation in the pursuit of justice is no virtue."

A thought for the day: Russian author Fyodor Dostoyevsky said: "The man is a pliable animal . . . a being who gets accustomed to anything."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Help Space Race By Using Your Brain While Playing

If a space ship from a distant star lands on Earth, the visitors may be disappointed in our intelligence, perhaps because the average man uses only a fraction of his brain.

Clearly, it is up to bridge players to lead the way to a better world by using their brains to full capacity.

East dealer
North-South vulnerable

	NORTH ♠ K J ♡ Q 10 2 ◇ 10 9 7 ♣ 9 7 6 4 3
WEST ♠ A 9 8 6 2 ♡ 7 3 ◇ 8 6 4 ♣ Q 10 5		EAST ♠ Q 10 7 4 ♡ K 4 ◇ K Q J 5 ♣ J 8 2
	SOUTH ♠ 5 3 ♡ A J 9 8 6 5 ◇ A 3 2 ♣ A K

East	South	West	North
Pass	1 ♡	Pass	2 ♡
Pass	4 ♡	All Pass

Opening lead — ◇ 8

Imagine that you are playing the South hand. You let East hold the first trick with the jack of diamonds, but you take the ace when East leads the king.

LEAD SPADE

You lead a spade, West plays low, and you must play the jack or king from dummy.

Assuming that you cannot see the East or West hands, how would you decide on the correct spade play from dummy? Don't just say, "I would guess." Think how silly this would seem to a visitor from Arcturus or even Betelgeuse.

If you use your brain to capacity you will know the correct spade play without having to guess. It isn't hard to know the right answer, especially if you have peeked at the West hand. The important thing is to know the reasoning, so that your brain gets the right kind of exercise.

THINK OF EAST

Think of East's hand. You know that East started with the king-queen-jack of diamonds. You are planning to take a trump finesse through East, so you are hoping to find the king of hearts in his hand. Right off the bat you know of 9 points in high cards in the East hand.

You can even assume that East is likely to have at least the jack of clubs.

HELD ACE

If East also held the ace of spades he would have opened the bidding instead of passing.

If East does hold the ace of spades, you will find that West has the king of hearts, so that the contract cannot be made.

Your best chance is to play West for the ace of spades and therefore you play the king of spades from dummy. The rest is easy.

Dealer, at your left, opens with one club and your partner bids one spade.

The next player passes, and it is up to you.

You have:

♠ Q 10 7 4
♥ K 4
♦ K Q J 5
♣ J 8 2

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three spades.

You want to be in game if your partner has more than minimum strength for his overcall. Your jump raise of an overcall is highly invitational, but not forcing.

New Juvenile Hall Chief Right At Home

By ALAN ADELSON

Okun, 33 years old, who began work Monday succeeds David Fogel, who will move up to supervise both Juvenile Hall and the Family Rehabilitation Center, due to begin operation next January.

Okun and his wife and two sons are living at 601 Glenwood Avenue, Tamalpais Valley.

Like his predecessor, Fogel, he took a pay cut in moving into the Juvenile Hall superintendentship. He was assistant director of the Los Angeles County Forestry Camp for Delinquents where he was making $914 a month. The Marin County position will pay $870 a month but promises more advancement and freedom of expression, Okun said.

"I've never felt so comfortable or self-contained as I do here," said the containment expert. "I didn't want to raise my children in Los Angeles."

Marin County is well known in the correction field said Okun. This is because so much creative work in methods and new programs has been done here. "It's going to be hard to be really creative here since so much new work has already been done," he said. "But we can still go further, especially in 'preventive' work."

Okun described the budget of Juvenile Hall as "a bare bones budget which is practical and serviceable without a bit of padding."

Okun described a program to be started next week by the Juvenile Hall which is the brainchild of Fogel. Twenty of the most responsible of the hall charges will be returned to their homes on Monday to a program of intensive supervision by a "detached detention worker."

This will save the expense of 24-hour supervision and will relieve crowding at the hall.

The program has been carefully investigated since January said Fogel. During the summer the two groups of boys will meet in a "summer camp" atmosphere for three days each week and on the other two days will be with their families.

"The community has been very generous with us in planning this program," said Fogel. "They have helped us with free admissions into entertainment activities, have provided several jobs, and seem very ready to help in any way they can."

Okun was born and raised in Brooklyn, N.Y. He received his bachelor's degree from City College of New York with a major in personnel administration and psychology, and his master's degree in psychology from Los Angeles State College. He did some work towards a Ph.D. at University of Southern California.

Negro Appointed Chief Of Police In Dixie Hamlet

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga. (AP) A Negro has been hired as police chief of this small northeast Georgia town which has been the target of civil rights demonstrations for two months, Sheriff M.B. Moore said today.

In an action unprecedented in Georgia, Jesse Meadows was appointed police chief and officially assumed his duties yesterday. Negro and white pickets continued demonstrations today in a boycott of white merchants while Meadows patrolled the streets.

There was no explanation immediately for the selection of Meadows as the police chief and the only day officer.

The sheriff said Meadows was the day policeman but technically was in charge of the only other officer—a white night policeman.

Navy Sets Huge Undersea Blast

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department yesterday set off an underwater explosion of 4,000 tons of obsolete ordnance to help develop better ways of detecting nuclear explosions below the earth's surface.

The motor vessel Coastal Mariner was sunk off the Virginia coast with the outmoded mines, torpedo warheads and other explosives aboard. Devices set the blast off when the vessel passed the 1,000 foot mark.

The explosion kicked up a plume of water 600 feet high. A Navy spovesman said it was "successful."

Murphy, Kuchel Cancel Votes

WASHINGTON (AP)—California's Republicans split on the 54-30 vote by which the Senate approved last night the multi-billion dollar omnibus housing bill and sent it back to the House.

Thomas H. Kuchel voted Aye and George Murphy No.

Loma Verde Group Head Under Fire

After months of bickering, a move has broken into the open to unseat James R. Simon as president of the Loma Verde Homeowners Assn.

A vote to unseat him won a majority, 35 to 23, at Monday night's meeting of the association but failed because a two-thirds majority is required by the association constitution for removing an officer.

Charges against Simon include that he is not conducting the meetings properly, has not called a board meeting since taking office in February, has mishandled association funds and not turned in any records to the association treasurer.

Simon agreed to straighten out the financial transactions and have the records ready for inspection by association members by this weekend.

The trouble came to light after the advisory board, composed of past presidents still living in Loma Verde, met with Simon three months ago, offering to help him. Simon refused help, according to the advisory board members, Norman Roderick, James Swenson and Gino Garalli.

When Simon refused to give accounting for a $204 check from Gordon Walker and Associates to the club treasurer, Mrs. Arnold Baptiste, the board asked for his resignation.

This Simon refused to give, which brought a recall motion in the open meeting.

The board gave Simon until the Aug. 2 meeting to give a full accounting of purchases he has made in the name of the association, and of which bills remain unpaid.

Span Leaper Dissuaded By Priest

John R. Reyes, 27, refused to speak to highway patrolmen and answered questions only by a shake of his head as he sat in a notch in the south bridge tower, about six feet below the sidewalk, and looked into the water almost 200 meet below.

He accepted coffee and a blanket to warm him against wind and fog, but would not return to the sidewalk.

Bridge toll takers had warned him at 1:45 a.m. that he could not go onto the bridge at night, as he walked from the parking lot on the San Francisco side where he had left his car.

Reyes ignored the warning, rushed onto the bridge and climbed over the railing to his sanctuary in the tower.

Bridge Manager James Adam and a "rescue team" of bridge workers stood by, but kept their distance from Reyes as he "edged toward the edge" a few times, Highway Patrolman Donald Dowling reported.

Reyes huddled in his blanket and refused to talk to anyone until Rev. Frank Piro of St. Vincent de Paul Church in San Francisco was called to the bridge.

Father Piro leaned over the rail and spoke quietly with Reyes. At almost 3 a.m. Reyes climbed back over the railing and was taken to San Francisco General Hospital.

If You Have a bit of Victoria in your soul, and prefer the formal to the casual, here's the house you will like. The grounds are completely landscaped in the balanced, turn-of-the-century style (and require very little care). The living room is off an entry hall and has beautiful draperies (these go with the house) to accent the windows on the garden. There is a separate dining room and the kitchen has space for a breakfast table and for a grouping around the TV. A central hall leads to three large bedrooms and two baths —and again the draperies and shutters are delightfully Victorian and will be yours. Even the price is old-fashioned — just $36,950 at

CIRCA 1922 CLASSIC
Best Ross Location
$28,000

Here is an architects own home with all the charm and appointments in keeping with the era. The masterful use of woods in the living room, dining room and sitting room, the two large bedrooms, and the solidly-built construction make this a fine home for one who appreciates quality. The low price is because the owner has begun an extensive remodeling project in the kitchen and baths, but was transferred, leaving work unfinished. Once you see this charmer you will immediately envision the great potential, both esthetic and financial, this home offers.

No Ticky Tacky At Petaluma Gardens

- No desert of drab colors! Petaluma Gardens is color-coordinated.
- No poles with overhead wires! All utilities are underground.
- No stucco exteriors! We use expensive looking siding.
- No forest of TV antennas! One Master antenna.
- Hot rodders won't like our sweeping street lines. But you will! FHA calls them "Curvilinear!" There are 27 "thou shalt nots" in our restrictive covenants—every one designed to make your life more beautiful and your Petaluma Garden property more valuable.

Luxury Living at The Lowest Cost

We give you 38 extra features plus 42 options.

Jail Term Set In Battery Case

A 90-day county jail term was given Donald Van Knight, 30, yesterday by Judge Peter Allen Smith of Marin Municipal Court on Van Knight's guilty plea to battery upon three women in Sausalito on June 12.

Van Knight, a San Francisco salesman, also was placed on three years probation.

He attacked Eva Mateus and Cornelia S. Eslinger, both of 55 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, and Diana DeLanoy of Mountain View, in front of the Kettle Restaurant on Bridgeway.

TELEVISION REVIEW

What If Adlai, Ike Had Debated?

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—If there had been major, national television debates between presidential candidates at the time, how would Adlai Stevenson have done against Dwight EisenhowerB.

It is, of course, hardly likely that anything at all could have offset the immense popularity of Eisenhower—or that a debate could have made the difference that it did for John Kennedy against Richard Nixon, in other words for the lesser known man against the better known one.

Still, the question is not too completely an idle one in the context of the general feeling that Stevenson ran up against bad timing in politics—especially in having to run against Ike. For if television had been as prminent then in politics as it has been from the time of President Kennedy on, possibly a somewhat altered image of Stevenson in the public mind would have resulted.

This suggestion that possibly his timing was also inopportune in terms of television's political "arrival" arises from the fact that millions of Americans — including his dedicated opponents — remember Stevenson's tough, enormously effective facing down of the Russians at the United Nations in a video session during the Cuban missile crisis. Even anti - Stevenson quarters were impressed.

And yet this capacity for public firmness and even toughness was totally opposite from the image that had settled in millions of minds—the image that indicated that, yes, he was brillant and witty and informed and sophisticated, but he may have lacked the quick decisiveness necessary for the presidency, as well as the common touch.

His alleged lack of decisiveness—more specifically, his alleged intellectual agonizing of the countless sides of a problem—was what one heard about from so-called inside sources, and yet the difficult thing was that one never really knows or sees about such matters unless a man is exposed under pressure—as he might have been in a video debate.

For, as Carl Sandburg wrote in his book "The People, Yes" —"The final decisions are made in silent rooms."

MARIN FILM FARE

Low Key War Drama Makes Point

By LES DARD

Marin's movie theaters offer a big selection this weekend — so take your pick:

101 DRIVE-IN

An off-beat war drama with a personalized view of D-Day in Normandy, "Up from the Beach," is now on screen.

It has some moving moments, but is particularly notable for putting over the point that war is confusion — unbelievable confusion.

The incident is a minor one. It is D-Day plus one, and a group of 23 French civilians driven from their little village by artillery arrives at Utah Beach to welcome Allied forces.

Infantry sergeant Cliff Robertson is assigned to conduct the civilians, including men, women and children, to safety. Seems simple, but it turns out otherwise. Since the whole area is under fire, the military has its hands full. Various officers have various ideas about what should be done with the wandering 23. One orders them evacuated to England, another wants them escorted back to their village.

Six times in 24 hours the war-tossed group treks between Verville and the beach. Their experiences as pawns of battle and in getting to know their GI escorts — who at first seemed slightly mad — make an effective sidelight of war.

In its way, the film is a sequel to "The Longest Day," but is not on that grand scale. However unpretentious, it makes excellent entertainment.

Red Buttons co-stars as a Pfc. from the Bronx and pretty Irina Demick as a French resistance leader. Broderick Crawford, James Robertson Justice and Slim Pickens have important roles.

MOTOR MOVIES

The delights of this double bill are very much visual:

"How to Stuff a Wild Bikini" is what it sounds like. Traveling fast — on motorcycles, etc. — with the young surf set. Gorgeous, giggling girls and gangling, go-go guys.

Annette Funicello and Dwayne Hickman are the big young names, and Brian Donlevy and Mickey Rooney represent the adult influence in this comedy of boy-girlmanship, in color.

"The Pleasure Seekers" is the co-feature, a pleasant cream puff about three American girls — all beautiful, natch — looking for husbands in Madrid, Spain.

One, Carol Lynley, is smart. Another, Pamela Tiffin, is dumb. The third, Ann-Margaret is brash and brassy.

NOVATO THEATER

Showing through tomorrow night is "Dear Brigitte," a synthetic but engaging comedy filmed largly in our own Sausalito. Jimmy Stewart stars as a university professor and an angry man. He doesn't like the way sciences get all the attention and money at school, while his beloved arts and humanities are on a starvation budget.

Contemporary culture, says he, is contemptible.

The prof has a family: Glynis Johns, wife; Cindy Carol, grown daughter; Billy Mumy, son 8. The latter as Erasmus, provides the plot. Not at all in his daddy's mold, he does have one exceptional talent: a mind like a computer, but faster.

The prof puts Erasmus' brain to work making money, which leads to a happy ending and a reward for the boy: his dream girl, Brigitte Bardot. Brigitte gives us a five-minute cameo that's warm and wonderful.

LARK THEATER

Held over is this very large double bill:

"Lawrence of Arabia" stars Peter O'Toole as the self-styled British lieutenant who almost mystically earned the respect of the desert tribes and led them against the Turks in World War I.

The cast includes Alec Guinness, Anthony Quinn, Omar Sharif, Arthur Kennedy, Jose Ferrer and an awful lot of Arabs.

Alec Guinness also stars in the marvelous co-feature, "Bridge on the River Kwai," playing a British colonel captured by Japanese in World War II.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"Zorba, the Greek," is an extraordinary film achievement, with moments both savage and tender. Anthony Quinn, in the title role, was considered by many the outstanding actor of 1964.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

SEQUOIA THEATER

Now on screen are the first two James Bond thrillers, with Sean Connery as the intrepid Agent 007.

In the first, "Dr. No," Bond hazards incredible dangers to thwart the plans of an evil nuclear scientist who wants to run the world.

In both, the action is slambang, the spy spoof sprightly, the girls, gorgeous and — as Bond — Sean Connery is something special.

RAFAEL THEATER

Dick plays an artist who shares a grimy Left Bank apartment in Paris with Garner. While Van Dyke pursues his art, Garner pursues the artists' models.

For reasons far too complicated and far-fetched to explain, Dick decides he must fake a suicide. He winds up living disguised in a house of pleasure madamed by Ethel Merman.

FAIRFAX THEATER
